Senator Sets Stage for Tiff With Stevens

Secretary of Army Will Face McCarthy At Hearing Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), fresh from a running clash over McCarthy's interrogation of Army officers, meet face to face on the issue tomorrow before a nationwide audience.

Turned down twice in two days on demands he made to the Army, McCarthy has summoned its civilian head to appear before his Senate investigations subcommittee here at 10:30 a.m., EST tomorrow.

Coddling Charged

He said Stevens would be asked to explain what the senator termed an attempt by the Army "to coddle and promote Communists."

Stevens said he received no official notification, but would be glad to appear. That was after he had ordered two generals not to comply with calls for their appearance before McCarthy's subcommittee.

Objecting to the humiliation he said was inflicted on one of them at a hearing by McCarthy last week, Stevens said, "I cannot permit the loyal officers of our armed forces to be subjected to such unwarranted treatment."

The secretary is a former textile manufacturer who himself served as an Army officer in both world wars.

He said he was afraid the "prestige and morale" of the military would be weakened by "unfair tactics on our officer corps."

Hearing To Be Televised

Tomorrow's hearing will be public and will be broadcast by the National Broadcasting Co., television network.

On Friday the Army let go by a deadline McCarthy had set for it to produce the names of all personnel connected with the promotion and honorable discharge of a reserve officer who had declined to say whether he was ever a Communist. The information has not yet been given the senator.

McCarthy said in New York yesterday that the reserve major involved, Dr. Irving Peress, a dentist, was "commissioned, promoted, saved from overseas orders and awarded an honorable discharge, all despite an open record of active membership in the Communist conspiracy."

In his investigation of the Peress

SALT MINE CAVE-IN CAUSES BUILDING TO SINK. A chemical plant building on the Detroit River, near Windsor, Ontario, is partly submerged in the river as a result of the collapse of an abandoned old salt mine. Two large warehouses sank into the ground and others tilted when the underground mine caved in. Six hundred workers at Canadian Industries, Ltd., and the Canadian Salt Company ran out when the buildings shook and then began to sink. Many areas of Windsor and southwest Detroit are honeycombed with abandoned salt mines.

ROKs Angry At Departure Of Custodians

GI Bayonets Chase Off Force of 200 to 300 On Rail Line to Inchon

SEOUL (AP) — American troops, jabbing with bayonets, chased off without apparent bloodshed 200 to 300 South Koreans who early today tried to halt a train carrying homebound Indian soldiers, the U. S. 8th Army said.

The Koreans were cleared from the tracks after some minor jabbing and shoving, and the train continued to Inchon port without incident, said an 8th Army spokesman.

U.S. Tanks Used

However, Kim Chang Houng, vice chief of South Korea's national police, said American tanks were called to the scene. He denounced what he called the 8th Army's "heavy countermeasures" against "a righteous move by indignant men."

An American officer said the anti-Indian demonstrators were cleared in about 30 minutes, shortly after midnight. They had massed on the railroad embankment and had lighted fires to keep warm.

The incident was the first show of interference which South Koreans had threatened against the Indians.

Both the 8th Army and South Korean police reported they knew of no injuries in the demonstrations, three miles north of Seoul.

Some Former POWs

A South Korean police official who said he was present reported that some of the group were former prisoners of war turned loose by Indian custodial troops last month.

In explaining how the South Koreans were dispersed, the ROK official said: "They were told to go and they just went."

The demonstrators were not armed, the police official said, and saw they could do nothing against "such an overwhelming force."

The Korean official claimed more than 1,000 Americans were protecting the train but the 8th Army spokesman said there was not anywhere near this number.

Moscow Sees Parley as Step Toward Peace

Inclusion of Chinese Can Settle Differences, Russian Reports Say

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio said today the forthcoming Geneva conference, including Communist China, can help pave the way to a Korean settlement and "the establishment of peace in Indochina."

Quoting from the Communist party organ Pravda, the English language broadcast heard here said the Western foreign ministers at the recent Berlin conference "had to agree to holding the Geneva conference with the participation of the Chinese Peoples Republic." It added:

"There can be no doubt that this conference can help to relax international tension and to eliminate the difficulties blocking a settlement of the Korean question and the establishment of peace in Indochina."

At Berlin, the United States, Britain, France and Russia agreed to call a conference at Geneva April 26 to discuss a Korean settlement and "the problem of restoring peace in Indochina." Although Red China would be invited, the final Berlin conference communique made clear this would not imply diplomatic recognition "in any case where it has not been accorded." The United States and France do not recognize the Peiping government.

The Moscow broadcast claimed the Soviet insistence on a role for Red China has "met with widespread response and approval the world over."

Red China Echoes Kremlin on Parley

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China tonight put its stamp of approval on the Big Four decision to hold an Asian peace conference at Geneva starting April 26 and said the parley should ease world tension.

"The Chinese people express their support for it," said Peiping radio, the voice of Red China.

The broadcast heard here quoted an editorial in the official Peiping People's Daily as saying, "Without doubt this agreement will gradually reduce international tension."

Communist China will attend the conference, but U. S. Secretary of State Dulles has stressed that the invitation does not mean U. S. diplomatic recognition.

Eisenhowers Due Back In Capital on Wednesday

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Vacationing President Eisenhower will return to Washington Wednesday morning and get a report on the Berlin Big Four conference a few hours later from Secretary of State Dulles.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower plan to board their private plane Columbine Tuesday evening for an overnight flight to the capital.

Eisenhower planned to get back on the golf course today after a quiet Sunday. He and the First Lady attended services yesterday at the Protestant Community Church of Palm Springs, where the pastor—Dr. James H. Blackstone Jr.—praised them for devotion to Christian principles.

Seek Geneva Details

Congressmen Quiz Dulles on Big Four

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles met with 15 key members of Congress today in the first round of his campaign to convince the nation he got the best results possible out of the Big Four meeting at Berlin.

Eight senators and seven house members, on Dulles' invitation, went to the State Department to hear a report on his Berlin conference decision to take part in an Asian peace conference in Geneva with Communist Chinese and Russian delegates.

Might 'Break Ice'

He has already said that in the arrangements the United States got 100 per cent what it wanted. Some members of Congress expressed fears that the Geneva conference might break the ice for ultimate recognition of Red China or "appeasement."

Today's closed meeting is the first of five reports Dulles will give on the results of the four-week session with Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Britain's Anthony Eden and France's Georges Bidault.

In a move to reassure uneasy legislators, Dulles is expected to stress that the forthcoming parley with the Communists, set for April 26, does not foreshadow formal American diplomatic recognition or membership in the United Nations for the Peiping regime.

Necessary Steps

The secretary is reported ready to argue that the terms agreed upon were necessary in order to cut through the deadlocked preliminary peace talks at Panmunjom, which had been stalled since last Dec. 12 over a name-calling wrangle.

The secretary plans to follow up today's meeting by reporting tomorrow to the full House Foreign Affairs Committee in a closed door meeting. On Wednesday he is to give a similar accounting to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

He is to give a nationwide 30-minute radio and television report to the nation Wednesday night.

In between these assignments, he plans to give a detailed report to President Eisenhower after the President returns from his Palm Springs, Calif., vacation Tuesday.

Bodies of Man, Woman Found In Indiana Car

ROCKVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Two bodies in a wrecked automobile — a woman riddled by bullets and a man without a mark of violence—gave state police and the coroner a mystery today.

Coroner B. M. Merrell said the man was Clarence Anderson, 52-year-old Putnam County farmhand. He planned an autopsy to determine the cause of death.

The woman, in the late 40s, was not positively identified, but the coroner said she closely resembled a picture Anderson carried in his billfold, which bore the name of Marie Myers, Indianapolis.

The bodies were found in a car which ran off Highway 59 north of Bellmore last night. Anderson was slumped at the wheel, and the woman's body was in the back, covered by blankets. The rear seat cushion had been removed.

Other motorists told the coroner the car went off the road after weaving as if the driver were drunk.

Dr. Merrell said Miss Myers' parents in Indianapolis stated that she left home yesterday to be married to a man who looked like a farmer, whose name they did not know.

Sen. Wiley Calls for Defeat

Changes in Bricker Bill Blasted as 'Hodge Podge'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) today denounced as a "hodge-podge" White House-approved changes the Senate has voted in a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to curb treaty powers.

Wiley, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he believes one change—to require all past and future treaties to be made in "pursuance" of the Constitution—"would raise cain in the courts."

Subject to Review

This proposal, adopted by a 44-43 vote of the Senate last week, would make all past and future treaties subject to court review on their constitutionality.

It was combined with proposals to require Senate roll-call votes on treaties and a requirement that treaties and other international agreements conform to the Constitution to make up what now is known as the administration's bill.

Wiley, who has opposed any change in the Constitution at this time, said he hopes this measure—or any other that comes up for a final vote in the Senate—can be defeated outright.

Wiley added, however, that he is going to canvass the situation in advance and may vote for a proposal by Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) to send the whole subject back to the Judiciary Committee.

CIO Statement

The CIO Executive Committee, in a statement last night, said the chief backers of Bricker's proposal are diehard elements trying to force the United States into "self-defeating isolationism." The statement urged defeat of the Bricker amendment and "any compromise which would appease" its backers.

No votes were scheduled today. Both the Senate and House planned no activity other than the traditional reading of George Washington's Farewell Address.

RAF Equipped With A-Bombs

British Expand Air Force Striking Power

LONDON (AP)—Atom bombs are now being delivered to Britain's rapidly expanding Royal Air Force, Prime Minister Churchill's government announced today.

An air ministry budget memorandum also disclosed British jet fighters are being equipped with guided rockets to strengthen defenses against enemy atom bombers.

It said recent successful rocket tests in the Australian desert "foreshadow the most important developments in air defense since the invention of radar."

The memorandum, prepared for Parliament by Air Minister Lord de L'Isle and Dudley, said Britain's air budget for 1954-55 calls for increased spending on aircraft and armament. It includes large deliveries of swift and hunter jet fighters, the first deliveries of top secret swept-wing Valiant medium jet bombers and allows for the first time for some atomic bombs.

Premier Nehru Proposes Cease Fire in Indochina

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Premier Nehru called today for a cease-fire in Indochina "since it would seem a tremendous pity that this terrible war should continue when a serious effort to meet and discuss this problem" is scheduled April 26 at Geneva.

"It is desirable, I think, to have some kind of cease-fire without any party giving up its position," Nehru told Parliament.

Newsman Selected As Public Relations Director for GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — James Bassett, 41-year-old political editor of the Los Angeles Mirror, today was named director of public relations for the Republican National Committee.

Bassett, who was Vice President Nixon's publicity director in the 1952 campaign, succeeds Robert Humphreys, who was promoted to campaign director, a new job.

The shifts were interpreted by party spokesmen as an effort to step up the 1954 congressional election campaign by relieving Humphreys of what was termed "double duties" in recent months.

Bassett was born in Glendale, Calif., Oct. 18, 1912. He graduated from Bowdoin College, Maine, and joined the Los Angeles Times in 1934, transferring to the Mirror as political editor in 1948. He was given a leave of absence to assist in the Nixon campaign in 1952.

Murder Trial In 3rd Week At Mansfield

100 Spectators in Line At 6 A.M. in Rush for Seating in Courtroom

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — With more than 100 spectators waiting outside at 6 a.m. today, a janitor opened the doors early at the courtroom where supermarket executive E. Max Sternbaum is being tried for first-degree murder.

The courtroom usually is opened at 7:45 in the morning.

It was the beginning of the third week of the trial in which Prosecutor Theodore Lutz is attempting to prove Sternbaum killed his wife for the love of another woman.

Defense Atty. Paul M. Herbert today made another attempt to get testimony given State Fire Marshal Charles Scott by Margaret Rozenman, Miss Rozenman is the woman Prosecutor Lutz is trying to link with Sternbaum in an attempt to establish a motive.

She testified last November at considerable length before the grand jury which indicted Sternbaum in the Dec. 4, 1952 death. The jury also indicted Sternbaum on an arson charge.

Herbert asked Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch to direct the state fire marshal to furnish him with the original transcription of testimony given by Miss Rozenman in the fire marshal's office in June, October and November last year. Herbert previously had asked Scott for the testimony.

The judge ruled Herbert will be given two hours just before Miss Rozenman testifies to look over the testimony. She is expected to testify within the next few days.

Election Issues in West

Democrats Will Hit Hard On Farm, Power Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — National Chairman Stephen Mitchell is expected to advise Democratic senators and House members from nine Western states tomorrow their best chance for re-election lies in attacking the Eisenhower administration's farm and power policies.

Optimistic Reports

The Democratic chairman, just completing a tour of Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Washington, Oregon and New Mexico, has been sending back to headquarters here optimistic reports of Democratic chances in those states.

He will sit down with Democrats from those states to detail his findings. Aides said he is expected to stress what he believes is public opposition in the area to President Eisenhower's flexible farm price support program and the administration's reputed opposition to public power developments.

Although Mitchell hasn't been bearing down on the issue, he has made it clear that the Democratic high command doesn't share views voiced by some Republicans that talking about a recession will bring on one.

Would Enhance Chances

Some Democrats believe that if a business downturn broadens with the Republicans in power, the minority party's chances will be increased in the voting next fall on control of Congress.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill), who is running for re-election, hit the issue again yesterday when he wrote Eisenhower urging the President to reconsider his tax proposals "to prevent a recession from deepening into a depression."

The Illinois senator urged the President to get behind a proposal of Sen. George (D-Ga) to boost personal income tax exemptions $200 as a measure of increasing

Baby Kidnaped From Hospital At Steubenville

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Police today sought a man and woman who snatched the man's sick 7-month-old baby from a hospital bed and fled in an automobile.

Patrolman John McConnell identified the father as Gerald E. Conrad and the woman as Helen Elhose. They escaped with the baby yesterday in a car bearing Maryland license plates.

The baby, Pamela, was brought to McGill Hospital Saturday for treatment of pneumonia. She was in the custody of Mrs. Alice Ernest of Steubenville. Police did not immediately disclose Mrs. Ernest's relationship to the child.

Hospital attaches said Conrad and Mrs. Elhose came to the hospital yesterday to visit the child. The woman grabbed the baby and put it under her coat and the couple ran out of the hospital despite a nurse's efforts to stop them, Patrolman McConnell said.

The policeman said the pair may be going to the home of a relative of Conrad — Mrs. Lucy Marsh, Westernport, Md.

The nurse who tried to prevent the two from leaving the hospital was Mrs. Gloria Kotur.

Old Ledger Shows Difference in Prices Of Today and 1830's

The difference between prices now and in the 1800's is illustrated in a book of expenses and receipts handed down from his father and grandfather to Carl B. Foster of 516 Park St.

The book kept by Giles Foster, one of the early settlers in Marion County, showed he worked for 37½ cents a day and bought bacon for 6¼ cents a pound.

Carl Foster is the grandson of Giles Foster. The book kept by Giles dates back to 1837 and ends in 1895, a short time before he died.

Entries in the book in 1837 showed Giles worked one-half day in the harvest for 50 cents, cleaned grain one day for 37½ cents, did another days work for 37½ cents, cradled oats for 75 cents a day, made 2,400 rails at 50 cents at one time.

Prices in those days included 33½ cents for a bushel of rye, $1.12½ cents for six bushels of oats, 12½ cents for a half-bushel of corn. One could buy 60 pounds of flour for 90 cents, two bushels of potatoes for 50 cents, one-half bushel of peaches for 50 cents, two pounds of butter for 16 cents, one-half bushel of apples for 12½ cents, and 18¾ pounds of pork at $1.17.

By 1894, the book showed, prices had risen to $1.20 for two bushels of wheat, 40 cents for a bushel of corn, 90 cents for nine pounds of pork and $2.10 for three bushels of potatoes.

Reckless Driving Case in Bucyrus Under Advisement

BUCYRUS—The reckless driving case, filed by the city of Bucyrus against Kent A. Buchanan of Bucyrus, a former Cleveland attorney, has been under advisement by Common Pleas Judge Ralph Sugrue of Seneca County after a day-long hearing in Crawford County Common Pleas Court Friday.

Briefs are to be filed within the next few days by Solicitor Robert L. Brown, representing the city, and Buchanan and C. U. Ahl of Bucyrus, co-counsel for the defendant.

Originally scheduled for hearing before Mayor Frank P. Sitler, the case was transferred to Common Pleas Court after Buchanan had filed an affidavit of prejudice against the mayor. Judge John C. Carroll disqualified from hearing the case because of "relationships and friendships involved."

Judge Sugrue of Tiffin then was assigned to hear the case by Chief Justice Carl Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Patrolmen Paul Long and James Thompson, arresting officers in the case, were questioned at length by Buchanan. Long testified that Buchanan told him "You have no right to stop me, I'll sue you" when he halted his car in the downtown district at 2 a.m. on Feb. 5.

Youth Held by Police

An 18-year-old Marion youth is being held by Marion police in the investigation of the theft Feb. 7 of a model airplane valued at about $10. The theft was reported to police by a man identified only as a Mr. Carpenter who said the plane was taken from his son while the boy was playing with it at the rear of the Snyder Hotel. Police said the youth arrested had in his possession a plane similar to the one stolen.

Carthage had about a million inhabitants at its peak, about three centuries B.C.

Many of Self-Employed Forget To File Social Security Reports

A number of persons who work for themselves have not yet made the required 1951 and 1952 social security reports, Paul D. Snider, manager of the Marion social security office, said today.

This is shown, he said, by contacts being made by the social security office field personnel and by inquiries being received by that office.

Some people, he said, have the impression that payment of social security tax by the self-employed and the resulting old-age and survivors insurance coverage is a matter of choice. "This is not so. It is as compulsory as making an income tax return if your net self-employment income is as much as $400 and it not from one of the professions excluded from social security coverage. In fact, the covered self-employment income must be reported on a section of the income tax return at the time the income tax report is made," Snider declared.

He pointed out that self-employed people who have net earnings of at least $400 during their tax year must file the social security section of the income tax return even though they aren't required to make a federal income tax return. Personal exemptions permitted for income tax purposes are not permitted in determining self-employment net earnings for social security purposes. Therefore, quite a few self-employed who do not ordinarily file income tax returns must make social security returns.

Snider urged persons who had self-employment income to contact the local social security office or Internal Revenue office, if if there is any question about their self-employment being under social security.

In Marion the social security office is located at 127 W. Church St. The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Patrolmen Arrest 22 Motorists In Speed Check at Williamsport

A state highway patrol radar speed check resulted in the arrest of 22 drivers in two hours yesterday afternoon.

According to patrol officers, the check was made on Route 42, five miles north of Mt. Gilead, in the village of Williamsport. Five cruisers from the Marion and Mansfield posts made the check between 2:30 and 4:30 p.m. in the 35 miles-per-hour zone. They said the traffic was very heavy and that motorists just "roared" through the town.

Eight of the 22 were arrested by patrolmen from the Marion post. Taken to Justice of the Peace R. R. Bennington's court in Mt. Gilead and fined one dollar for each mile they exceeded the speed limit were Edward J. Dierker, 47, of Summitville, $15 and costs; Joseph Emidy, 53, Erie, Penna., $11 and costs; Howard A. Hearl, 36, Columbus, $11 and costs, Clarence K. Tischer, 43, Belleville, $11 and costs; Ned C. Deihl, 22, Mansfield, $15 and costs; Vaughn E. Ullman, 19, Lisbon, $13 and costs; Gladys W. Tate, Dayton, $17 and costs; and Lloyd W. Canan, 40, Columbus, $15 and costs.

13 Other Arrests

Thirteen other weekend traffic arrests were reported by the Marion post today.

Those arrested, charges and disposition of cases were as follows:

Richard E. McClaskey, 19, near Prospect, parking on the roadway, cited to appear in Municipal Court tomorrow; Edward Jackson, 24, Cleveland, fined $30 and costs for speeding and $50 and costs for driving without an operator's license by R. B. Bennington, then placed in Mt. Gilead city jail for non-payment of fines; Silvester Robinson, 22, Cleveland, reckless driving, $25 and costs Bennington; David Daugherty, 25, Columbus, and Howard McCormick, 24, McMinnville, Tenn. both fined $15 and costs by Bennington for passing on yellow line; and Lawrence L. Rebman, 19, Barberton, reckless driving, $10 and costs by Mt. Gilead Mayor Emery M. Murphy.

Others Stopped

Arrested also were Victor S. Gennett, 42, Canton, passing on yellow line, fined $10 and costs by Murphy; Nellie Marsh, Akron driving on wrong side of road, $10 and costs, Bennington; Clifford M. Frock, 26, Akron, speeding, cited for Mayor Murphy's court March 1; Bobbie Johnson, 273 Bellevue Ave., no operator's license, cited for Municipal Court tomorrow; Adam Takas, 45, Mansfield, speeding, $20 and costs Bennington; Marshall J. Anderson, 38, Toledo, speeding, $10 and costs by Mayor Harold Koehler of Upper Sandusky; and Willie Boyd, 30, Wayne, Mich., speeding, fined $15 and costs by Mayor Koehler.

Y Candy Sale Nets $1,400 for Repair of Bus

The third annual YMCA salt water taffy sale was declared a success today by Marvin J. Ludwig, youth secretary of the organization.

Ludwig reported a total of about 7,500 one-pound boxes of candy were sold in the three-day sale. He said a gross profit of $1,678.30 was made and a potential net profit of about $1,400. This money will be used to finance badly-needed repairs on the YMCA bus. Slogan for the salt this year was "Taffy Means Transportation."

More than 400 youthful salespeople competed for a variety of prizes. Announced winners are as follows:

John Frye of 126 Uhler Ave. won a portable radio which he wanted instead of a bicycle for selling 175 pounds of taffy.

Henry Guthrie of 489 Cherry St. sold 130 pounds and won an archery set and lessons on how to use it.

Braddy Kile of near Caledonia and Judd Mills of near Green Camp both sold 125 pounds and won a set of swim fins.

Twenty-one others won free membership in the "Y" for selling more than 75 pounds of candy.

The prizes were awarded Saturday afternoon by Juvenile Judge Edward J. Ruzzo, chairman of the youth committee. Also on the committee were Charlton Myers, Jack Weis, Walter Grumbiatt, Rev. Ashley Booth, Miss Helen May, Mrs. Bett McCombs, Mrs. Walter Moore, Mrs. Carl Knirk, Mrs. George Turner and Mrs. Ralph Cathart.

Board members from Morrow Rural Electric Co-op at Mt. Gilead, Union Rural Electric Co-op, Marysville; Delaware Rural Electric Co-op, Delaware; and Marion Rural Electric Co-op, Marion, are present.

According to Kenneth Kinsler, manager of the Marion Rural Electric, the group is discussing the relationship and responsibilities the boards of directors have to the members of the electric cooperative, community and employes.

Fred Dunmire of Cleveland and C. A. High of Columbus of the Trade and Industrial Education Service, Vocational Division, State Department of Education, are acting as discussion leaders.

Policeman Thwarts Runaway Attempt By 13-Year-Old Boy

A would-be runaway 13-year-old Marion boy was stopped before he had a chance to go far by an alert city policeman Sunday.

Patrolman Charles R. Ferguson was making his rounds in the business section shortly after 9 a.m. Sunday morning when he learned a young boy had just bought a bus ticket for New Orleans.

Ferguson went to the Union Bus Depot on N. Main St. and soon found the youth hiding in a restroom.

Questioned, the boy told Ferguson his name and Ferguson in turn called the youth's father.

A few minutes later with some $21 refunded on the ticket, the boy was on his way home.

Sternbaum

Herbert said he asked for a copy of her testimony because he believed it "is conflicting, contradictory and inconsistent."

Merlin Mitton, an investigator for Fire Marshal Scott, testified the only evidence taken from the old Sternbaum office building after the fire from which Leah Sternbaum's body was removed was chemical analysis of a gasoline can found in the ruins.

Mitton said he had told Prosecutor Lutz to keep the building intact after making an investigation Dec. 9, 1952.

Sternbaum employes have testified they demolished the remains of the building.

The 35-year-old Mansfield supermarket executive is accused of beating his 31-year-old wife, Leah, to death with a wrench in the building which housed the supermarket offices and then setting fire to the building, Dec. 4, 1952.

Plane's Engine Fails: Forced Landing Made

A Toledo man, Carelton S. Thebeau, 50, sustained an injured hand when the airplane in which he was a passenger made a forced landing Saturday afternoon in a field south of County Road 162 near the Marion airport, with considerable damage resulting to the plane.

Piloting the small two-seater plane was Donald Covrett, 30, of Sylvania. He told investigating state highway patrolmen that he had just taken off from the airport and was about 200 feet in the air when the airplane's engine sputtered and he had to make a forced landing.

The landing was made in a wheat field owned by Carl Lehner. The two men told Lehner that they had been visiting relatives in Worthington and were on their way home to Toledo.

The plane was owned by Civilian Flight Club, Inc., of Sylvania, and was to be removed to the Marion airport pending investigation by the CAA of Columbus.

Eaton Factory To Make Parts For New Axle

The Eaton Mfg. Co. plant in Marion will make parts for a new Eaton tandem axle, S. H. Wood, plant general manager revealed today.

Differential gears for the axle will be manufactured in Marion.

The main office of the firm in Cleveland announced production of the 32,000 - pound - load capacity truck axle. It is designed to bridge the gap between present 28,000 and 36,000 pound models and it meets the legal maximum in 37 states.

The tandem axle will be used on large trucks having multiple wheels in the rear and so will not be subject to abnormal stresses or complicated lubrication problems sometimes encountered when conventional axles are installed on tandem service.

Other features of the new axle are equal distribution of power and better traction when driving in mud or snow.

The product is on display now in the window of National City Bank as part of the Eaton Mfg. Co. display for national engineers' week.

National FFA Week Marked

11,000 Ohio Future Farmers Celebrate

This week has been designated National FFA Week by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. During this week 11,000 Ohio Future Farmers in 345 chapters will be celebrating 26 years of progress.

Dr. Clyde Hissong, state director of education, noted that the Future Farmers are an integral part of the program of vocational education in agriculture. He added that no national student organization enjoys greater freedom of self government under adult counsel and guidance. "Their motto", he said, "consists of only one sentence but that it is filled with practical philosophy reflecting the spirit and sincerity of farm youth." The motto is— "learning to do doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve."

Among other things Future Farmers learn how to conduct and take part in a public meeting, how to speak in public, how to buy and sell cooperatively, how to finance themselves, how to solve their own problems and how to assume civic responsibility.

FFA chapters throughout the state will have some kind of observance, according to Warren G. Weiler, supervisor of vocational agriculture. There will be radio and television programs, displays in local store windows, a parents night participation in programs for one of the service clubs and church attendance with the boys wearing their official FFA jackets. In some instances FFA members will establish an "FFA School Forest" on a corner of the school grounds or in city parks.

Politics

By George Sokolsky

The effort to operate a non-political administration in a political country is falling apart. The theory that patronage is a great evil to be eschewed by a Republican president is having this effect; when a Republican applies for a job, he is rejected for being a politician. What is wanted are career men, and most career men, after 2 years of Democratic rule, are mostly Democrats.

SOKOLSKY

That is what all the shouting has been about over the Lincoln Birthday week and those who have traveled hither and yon, delivering speeches on the greatness of Abraham Lincoln, have come back to Washington chagrined and frightened because unless the administration becomes political, the Democrats will win the 1954 election and possibly that of 1956.

THAT IS VERY discouraging news to the Republicans, particularly those who are important men in the newspapers but who have no way of cutting through the White House entourage to the President. They have no way of telling him the simple facts of political life as they see them.

Next March, the Republicans are going to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the party at Ripon, Wisconsin. This should be a lively affair, stirring this party to an emotional outpouring on the verge of a congressional campaign.

Having a President in the White House, Republicans would like to have their President at Ripon delivering a major address on the virtues of this party. It does not seem logical that so significant an event should be minus this leading personality.

It is now understood that the President does not choose to go to so strictly a partisan affair, even though the enthusiasm kindled there might bestir his party to unity and victory.

Many rumors attend this decision, although I cannot vouch for the truth or falsity of any of them, some say that he avoids Wisconsin because it is the state of the redoubtable McCarthy; others say that the decision was taken because of C. D. Jackson's psychological warfare theory that the President should be above politics, a monumental figure without a pedestal.

OTHERS SAY that it is the President's disposition to avoid such occasions, although all admit that his impromptu address at the Lincoln Birthday box supper in Washington was an excellent performance, breathing sincerity and warmth.

In fact, it is recognized that President Eisenhower makes a better speech on his own than with the assistance of his speech-writers, who are acclaimed as very second rate, in no manner equal to the ghosts employed by Roosevelt and Truman.

When the President stands up to talk without even a note, out of his own head and heart, is is usually a good speech, whereas the manufactured stuff, staff - written, seems to lack both body and soul. At Ripon, he would have a wonderful opportunity to establish his leadership over a leaderless party.

Some Republicans are particularly moved to inquire how it is that the President cannot find the time to go to Ripon, Wisconsin for this 100th Anniversary when he can find time to visit Paul G. Hoffman at Palm Springs, California.

Admitting that it is none of their business to inquire how the President chooses to spend his time, they do point out that Hoffman has, during the past 20 years, been on the New Deal side of things, whereas in Ripon, votes can be made for the Republican party.

THERE ARE no votes in Hoffman except his own and no one knows how that would go in a congressional election. As a matter of fact, such a visit stirs no enthusiasm among the Republicans in California as it highlights an individual whose political affiliations may be dubious.

So there is another issue to bestir the politically - minded and to cause dissension in the rank and file of Abraham Lincoln's party, which Senator Lehman of the Americans for Democratic Action denies belongs to the Republicans at all.

It is beginning to look like one of those Hollywood marriages in which it is impossible to figure out who is married to whom and whether any of the marriages ever took.

The misfortune in all this is that there is lots of business to do which cannot wait too long without disastrous effects upon the nation and its economy, and that while the politicians fiddle away like a dissonant bebop band, the danger to the people increases.

New Tip on Newark Slaying Proves Old

WASHINGTON (AP)—A "new" tip on a 23-year-old unsolved cop-killing in Newark, Ohio, proved to be old here Saturday.

Police Chief Arthur Jones of Newark said a man who walked into police headquarters here to volunteer a tip had given the same tip at the time of the slaying—and it had been discounted.

Jones said he would not pursue questioning the "tipster," Richard F. Brown, 49, of no fixed address. Brown was released.

Jones said Brown offered the same tip shortly after the fatal shooting of Policeman Harry Beasley during a safe robbery in Newark in 1931.

Heavy Smokers Urged To Have Chest X-Rays Twice Each Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Cancer Society's statistical research director said today a heavy smoker "is very foolish if he does not have a chest X-ray taken twice a year"—although there is no proof smoking causes cancer.

Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, the director, gave the advice in a copyrighted interview with the magazine U.S. News & World Report.

And the magazine described him as smoking during the interview.

Dr. Hammon said a heavy smoker should take the recommended precaution "so long as there is even a strong suspicion that smoking causes lung cancer."

But he also said everyone, especially those over 45, should have an X-ray at least once a year, and he added:

"If you are a timid soul, then you should also give up smoking at least until the facts are known."

Dr. Hammond indicated the kind of facts he is after by saying, "If we should find that the death rate from lung cancer is much higher among heavy smokers and the death rate from other forms of cancer is not one bit higher among heavy smokers, then I'd say the evidence would be extremely strong that there is a cause-and-effect relation."

He said his "personal guess right now" is that there is such a relationship between smoking and lung cancer, but he does not know whether the smoking effect is "trivial" or so important that cigarette manufacture should be stopped "until we find what's in

He said there were some indications cigarette smokers were more susceptible to lung cancer, while cigar and pipe smokers were more likely to develop lip, tongue or mouth cancer.

As for his own smoking, he said, "I am not going to let it (the problem he is investigating) have any effect on my personal habits until all the facts are known."

Dr. Hammond is in charge of a research project under which 22,000 volunteers have been interviewing 204,000 men 50 to 69 years old about their smoking habits. Each year, the causes of any deaths among the group are medically investigated.

Gratitude

By Victor Riesel

I've taken the trouble to dig up the figures on Guatemalan expenditures in behalf of the Communist International and to find out just who is financing that Soviet operation.

RIESEL

We are. We, the American people, are providing some 70 million dollars to a country whose government has permitted Soviet agents to infiltrate air bases only three hours from the famous oil fields, refineries and other vital industries of Texas.

At least 55 million of this sum is what America spends on imported Guatemalan coffee, produced by workers whose unions are controlled by a man who has publicly hailed U.S. - Soviet spies, the imprisoned U.S. Communist agents and Harry Bridges, the leader of the pro-Soviet labor combine in the U.S.

The man who did all this hailing and "saluting" did so in a speech last May Day in Guatemala City. He is strong man Victor Manuel Gutierrez, secretary-general (boss) of the General Confederation of Labor, which controls the Guatemalan Labor party, which, in turn, controls the government and is a front for the Communist International.

WE KNOW, of course, that Gutierrez was personally briefed by Soviet agents in Vienna not too long ago. Soon after this came his "famous" speech, addressed, Soviet style, to "Citizen president, presidents of the legislative and judicial organizations, chief of the armed forces, ministers, comrade workers and people of Guatemala."

This concentration of Guatemalan big-wigs was a captive audience. And to it he shouted:

"We salute the victim of U.S. Fascism, the Rosenbergs, Eugene Dennis, Harry Bridges . . . with particular emotion we salute the workers of the Great Soviet Union, of the Chinese Peoples' Republic, of the Peoples' Democracies and of the German (East) Democratic Republic."

Few sentences could incorporate more anti-U.S. sentiment than those of Gutierrez, hailing our military enemies.

Yet in the first nine months of 1953 25,000,000 pounds of the Guatemalan enemy's coffee came in through the Port of New Orleans, 16,000,000 pounds through San Francisco and 17,000,000 pounds through New York. The rest was scattered. Total estimate for the year is 55 million dollars worth, and 1954 is showing a proportionate increase.

GUATEMALA also is selling us millions of dollars worth of chicle for chewing gum, as well as bananas and hemp.

It is the tax on these Guatemalan exports which greases the wheels of the pro-Soviet government there—and the U.S. takes up fully 90 per cent of that country's foreign sales.

The Guatemalan government does not issue a detailed breakdown of its budget, nor does it give its people any accounting for some 35 per cent of its expenditures. But reliable intelligence sources report that large amounts of the unaccounted funds go into payoffs for its bureaucracy and labor officials and for the financing of Communist and Soviet - front activities.

Lest this sound inconceivable, remember that the Guatemalan Communist party officials frequently travels to Moscow. And, in December 1952, the Guatemalan Communist party, which runs the Labor party and therefore is, in effect, the governing force, staged a congress at which it affirmed its dependence on the decisions of the Soviet Communist Congress held just previously in Moscow. It's on the record.

THE MOST damning indictment of Guatemala, whose coffee we drink, came recently from a group of men who spent months investigating that country.

In the group were such labor officials as Sol Barkin, the CIO Textile Workers' Union's ace researcher; Milo Ross, Director of the CIO's International Affairs Department, and George Delaney, the AFL's international representative, as well as prominent businessmen.

"The effectiveness of Communist propaganda may be seen in the fact that in Guatemala today, the term anti-Communist' has a similar connotation to 'un-American' in the U.S.," this group said. 'By Communist definition (in Guatemala) all anti-Communists are counter - revolutionaries. This interpretation is accepted by the Guatemalan government, which regards anti-Communist activity as subversive and, therefore, liable to official prosecution."

Stop drinking that coffee and buying hemp. Or do you really want to pay for that Soviet airbase, three flying hours from Texas?

'Agony' Show

By Saul Pett

NEW YORK

Out of a clinical curiosity, I went to an "agony" television program recently and everything went according to plan I never felt worse.

The show was "Strike It Rich," which gives away about $250,000 a year to people who tell their troubles before the cameras. For that kind of dough, you can buy a lot of trouble.

THE AUDIENCE involved mostly women and some servicemen who seemed to have wandered in out of boredom. On the stage there were many boxes of a wash detergent and paste-board hearts since this is "the original show with a heart" and the soap pays for the heart.

A few minutes before air time, a cheerful, tall man came out and introduced "The man with the really big heart," who turned out to be Walter Framer, the show's producer. Framer, a short man with heavy glasses and a nervous, set smile, introduced the man who had introduced him.

Then Framer made a little speech which I took to be an answer to recent criticism of the show on the grounds that it attracts needy people to New York who end up on relief and that it exhibits bad taste in parading human misery in public.

"We're not running a welfare department," Framer said. "Just a little quiz game, which is basically for entertainment and also some inspiration."

FRAMER concluded by telling us he wasn't asking us to applaud, but he'd appreciate it if we did when he raised his hands thus and so and, besides there would be prizes later for those who applauded the most.

As the show got under way, Framer was very busy, running around checking camera angles, watching the clock, leading applause and several times darting backstage to announce "heartline calls," which presumably come from people watching at home.

The first contestants were Mayor Dominick J. Delucco of Hartford and Lionel Hampton, the band leader. After a few questions, they won $500 for a girl in Hartford, "who is very sick—very sick—just to prove how sick she is, her weight has gone from 143 to 73."

I also thought it was nice of Warren Hull, the host, to bring out the fact that the mayor owns a restaurant in Hartford, which bears his name, and that Hampton's next theater date will be at the Apollo in Harlem.

AFTER A SINGING commercial and a plug for a movie magazine, a gray-haired, nervous woman tried to win $125 for a sewing machine. She said she's alone in the world, she sews for a living and "they took away my old machine. I'm back in the rent and my lights have been turned off."

Having difficulty with several questions, the woman won only $60. But at the last second, Framer's "heart-line" voice announced that "Strike It Rich" had just arranged with a certain company, which he named, for her to get a sewing machine free as well as the $60 in cash.

"Ah, boy!" Hull sighed. "That was to the rescue all right."

Next came two young honeymooners who wanted to win money for a Korean orphan boy whom the husband had once befriended in Korea. "The boy," we were told, "was hungry, cold, had insufficient clothing and his bones were swollen."

-:-

THE COUPLE had trouble identifying composers and won only $20. Hull thought that was too bad, but never one to miss a silver lining, he added: "That'll go a long way in Korea."

The last guest was a public health nurse who wanted to win money for a hospital bed for her patients but just then the program ran out of time. There were only a few seconds left to announce "heart-line" calls in behalf of the sick girl in Hartford. These donations included $50 from a meat market, which was named.

Later, I went backstage, where prospective contestants were being interviewed for future shows. They included a pregnant woman and her husband, two women with small children, two soldiers and one young lady, somewhat disheveled in a long coat and saddle shoes, who was crying quite visibly. "I'm so nervous," she sobbed. "I'm getting married next month. I want a tractor for my farm."

Box Office Drama Better Than Movie

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Movie patrons watched a comedy at a theater while two bandits put on their own melodrama in the manager's office—and left with $2,200.

David Draper, assistant manager, told police he was approached by a gunman yesterday and forced to open the safe. The gunman took $1,500 and then demaded the receipts from the box office.

Lacking the keys, Draper was forced to call the manager. Meanwhile, Draper was tied up and two movie patrols who wanted to lodge a complaint with the manager, plus a curious newsboy, were herded into the manager's office.

The manager, Don Gibbons, arrived and the two robbers got $700 more from the box office.

Claridon Edges Prospect 49-47 for Tourney Crown

Morral Clips Waldo, Enters District Play

By JOHN SHORT

Claridon walked off with the Marion County Tournament title Saturday night with a hard-earned 49-47 decision over Prospect, co-champion of the regular county league chase.

Both Claridon and runner-up Prospect will play in the Central District Class B tournament at Westerville or Columbus. Also qualifying for a berth in the tourney event was Morral. The Wildcats edged Waldo in the consolation finals 49-37 after a comeback in the final quarter.

It marked the second straight tournament title for Coach Allen Augenstein's Claridon team.

Rugged Battle

The championship game was a rugged battle all the way with first one team and then the other holding slim margins. Ron Wood started the fireworks when he shoved in a pair of free throws and Bob Rodgers connected from under the basket to give Prospect a 4-1 lead. The Claridon team came back to knot the count at 7-7 and then Don Krawczyk shoved in six points to move Prospect into a 13-7 lead with a minute and 48 seconds to play in the period. Gary Price and Gail Castle hit from the field and Gary Row added a charity throw to narrow the gap to 15-12 at the quarter.

A pair of hook shots and a foul by Row set the stage for Price to knot the count at 19-19 at the 5:08 mark of the second stanza. Row added his fifth out of six foul shots to move the Hornets ahead for the first time 20-19. Before the period ended, the lead changed hands six times but a last-minute spurt, led by Price, Row and Gene Jessie gave Claridon a 30-26 edge at the half.

Row started the third period by sweeping all rebounds and the Hornets stretched their lead to 37 - 30 before Prospect rallied. Goals by Ron Wood, Bob Emery and Tom Hickman cut the margin ot 37-36 and Claridon finished the period holding a slim 39-36 cushion.

Neck and Neck

The teams remained neck and neck until the middle of the final frame when Rodgers broke out of a temporary slump and began rebounding. With slightly over two minutes to go Hickman knotted the count at 44-all but Row dropped in a two-pointer with a minute and 44 seconds to play to shove Claridon out front 46-44. In the space of 30 seconds, Claridon's defenders tied up Prospect ball handlers four times at the Prospect foul line before Price grabbed a loose ball and raced the length of the court for the clincher with 41 seconds to play. His goal boosted the score to 48-44. Hickman dropped in a field goal with 32 seconds to play but a free throw by Price boosted the count to 49-46 wiht 15 seconds still to play. Emery dropped in a free throw with six seconds left but Price grabbed the rebound to cinch the win.

Claridon's greater height was the big factor in the win. Gary Row and Jessie gave the winners complete control of both boards and both turned in top flight offensive performances as well.

Gary Row Leads

Row led the scoring with 16 points for the winners. Price dumped in 13 while Jessie and Castle each finished with eight. Hickman and Krawczyk topped the Bulldogs' attack with 10 each. Bob Rodgers, the Prospect scoring ace, was limited to eight by the defensive work of Row and Jessie.

In the fight for the third district tournament berth, Waldo jumped into an early lead and led most of the way before the 22-point surge by Morral in the final eight minutes.

The Waldo squad grabbed a 4-0 lead before Ron Crayeraft dropped in a charity throw for Morral after almost three minutes had passed.

With Don Yake controlling rebounds for the Waldo squad, Morral dropped behind 9-5 at the end of the first period. The Wildcats failed to hit for a single field goal during that time.

With 56 seconds gone in the second quarter, Clair Hensel potted the first Morral fielder when he scored in a layup to narrow the count to 9-8. Two goals by George Yake and one by Rex Henry were scored before Morral scored again.

Margin Reduced

Midway in the period, Waldo held a 19-9 advantage but Crayeraft, Jim Sniffiet and Junior Bell managed to cut the deficit to 20-17 at the end of the half. Waldo came back strong to boost its margin to 26-19 before Morral began clicking. Hensel began the comeback by dropping in two free throws with three minutes and 33

Saxton, Bratton Collide in Top Fight of Week

NEW YORK (AP)—If welterweight champion Kid Gavilan wins the middleweight crown from Bobo Olson on April 2 he will have to give up his 147-pound title. Two of the contenders who will figure in a welterweight elimination tourney are Johnny Saxton of Brooklyn and Johnny Bratton of Chicago.

The two Johnnys get a jump on the field Wednesday night when they collide in a 10 rounder at the Philadelphia Arena. Saxton, the No. 5 contender, is a 9-5 choice to win. Bratton, No. 3, was soundly drubbed by Gavilan in a title fight Nov. 13.

The Saxton-Bratton winner vs the winner of a bout between Carmen Basilio, No. 1, and Billy Graham, No. 2 most likely would be recognized as world welterweight champion if Gavilan ascends to the middleweight throne.

The Saxton-Bratton scrap, starting at 10 p.m., EST, will be telecast coast to coast by CBS.

It's the fading veteran against the up and coming youngster in the headliner at Madison Square Garden Friday night. Willie Pep, the 31-year-old former featherweight champion, faces Lulu Perez, the 20-year old Brooklyn flash, in a 10 rounder in the big arena.

Starting at 10 p.m., EST, the bout will be broadcast (ABC) and telecast (NBC) coast to coast.

Davey Gallardo, the sixth ranking featherweight contender from Los Angeles, and Gene Smith of Washington, tangle in the feature ten at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway arena tonight. Dumont will telecast the bout to some parts of the country starting at 10 p.m., EST.

A horse named Landlocked was flown from South Carolina to Hialeah for a special race and won it.

OSU Continues Comeback, Nips Gophers 84-73

CHICAGO (AP)—A quick one-two punch tonight is all Indiana needs to place itself beyond reach in the 1954 Big Ten basketball campaign.

First and foremost requirement is a victory by the Hoosiers over the second-place Iowa Hawkeyes in a game on the Indiana floor.

The second part of the parlay would be a victory by Wisconsin in tonight's game with Illinois at Champaign.

This set of circumstances would leave Indiana will 11 victories and 1 loss and only 2 games left in the 14-game Big Ten season. Every other team would have at least 4 defeats and not even a mathematical chance of overtaking the Hoosiers.

With Iowa staggering from two successive wallopings by Ohio State Monday and Illinois Saturday, an Indiana win tonight seems by no means an extravagant expectation.

Indiana, meantime, was having its troubles with Michigan State, winning 63-61 in the last two seconds on Burke Scott's field goal. The Spartans double-teamed Don Schlundt, the Hoosier scoring ace, and held him to 15 points.

In other games, Ohio State continued a strong late-season surge by beating Winnesota 84-73; Northwestern overpowered Purdue 90-72 and Wisconsin beat Michigan 77-56.

Indiana Can Cinch Big 10 Title Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Indiana's Hoosiers can wrap up the Big Ten basketball title tonight and qualify for the NCAA Tournament, which they won last year.

A victory over Iowa's fading Hawkeyes will give Coach Branch McCracken's boys at least a tie for their second straight Big Ten crown. And should Wisconsin whip Illinois, the Hoosiers will have the title without any further argument.

Indiana, ranked third nationally in the latest Associated Press poll, has a 10-1 record in conference competition, with Iowa (8-3) and Illinois (7-3) the only challengers. A three-way tie is theoretically possible but not likely. The Illini and the Hoosiers meet in the wind-up March 6.

The Hoosiers could well go into the NCAA Tournament as the favorites since first-ranked Duquesne already is in the National Invitation Tournament in New York and the three stars of second-rated Kentucky — Cliff Hagan, Frank Ramsey and Lon Tsioropoulos — may not be welcome in the NCAA Tournament because of their post-graduate status.

Oklahoma A&M, which won the NCAA crown in 1945 and 1946 behind Bob Kurland, could clinch another Missouri Valley Conference title—No. 8 in 11 years—by beating Wichita again Wednesday. That would qualify the fifth-ranked Aggies automatically for the NCAA Tournament since the Missouri Valley is one of 5 conferences sending representatives directly to the tournament.

Three conference representatives already have been named to the NCAA tourney, and the next two weeks are the weeks of decision for the collegians, with both big postseason tournaments filling up like a pair of camels in an oasis.

Title Nailed Down

Ohio Collegiate Basketball Campaigns Nearing Finish

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's collegiate basketball championships were all wrapped up and tucked away today.

The crown-wearers are Marietta (10-0) in the Ohio Conference, Toledo (10-2) in the Mid-American, and Findlay (9-0) in the Mid-Ohio League. Marietta and Findlay still have a conference game to play, but the outcome cannot shake them from the top spots. Toledo has completed its conference chores.

This week's schedule calls for 40 games, and next week's curtain-dropping program offers 20 contests, but the teams will be doing nothing more than jockeying for position back of the leaders.

Marietta, boasting a 19-1 record, is far ahead in the statewide race. Rio Grande holding second with 18-4. The Rio Grande club, paced by big Bevo Francis, was idle last week but goes against Ashland and Shurtleff this week and winds up against Creighton March 1.

Dayton's sensational Flyers tuned up for the NIT tournament at Madison Square Garden by running over Cincinnati 91-66 last week, and trimming Xavier 81-63 yesterday. The twin victories left the Daytonians with a 22-5 record, which may be marred this week as the Flyers meet Toledo at Toledo tomorrow and then entertain Duquesne's national leaders Saturday.

The three league champions, with the laurels within their grasp, took no chances last week. Marietta romped over Muskingum 80-56, to knock the New Concord crew out of third place in the Ohio Conference; Findlay dumped Ohio Northern out of fourth place in the Mid-Ohio 92-66, and Toledo—needing two wins to clinch the title—got 'em by 59-53 over Kent State and 71-66 over Ohio University.

The home floor advantage continued to play a part as host teams won 25 to 45 last week, giving the visitors only 196 wins against 325 losses for the campaign. Under the new race-horse style of play, the home floor advantage figures round 10 or 12 points for the hosts.

Out-of-state teams had a 10-9 advantage over Ohio clubs last week, but for the season the Buckeye squads have 141 victories against 124 losses in that department, the lead in scoring by 20,204 to 119,518.

Of this week's 40 games, 18 are against non-Ohio teams, 9 are in the Ohio Conference, 2 in the Mid-American, and 2 in the Mid-Ohio.

Ohio State, surprise victor over Iowa and Minnesota last week, winds up its at-home season Saturday against league-leading Indiana—a game which has been a sell-out for weeks.

Parsons Hurt During Midget Auto Accident

GARDENA, Calif. (AP) — Johnny Parsons is out of auto racing for at least six weeks as a result of serious injuries in a spectacular crash of his midget car at Carrell Speedway yesterday.

He suffered dislocations of both shoulders, a concussion and tearing injuries to his left arm, requiring 50 stitches, Dr. Sidney Senter reported. His condition, however, was described as good.

The 34-year-old Van Nuys winner of the 1950 Indianapolis race thwarted death when his car flipped over and rolled five times in a six-lap heat race. There was no other car involved.

Barons Hit Louisville 7-6 To Preserve Home String

Marion Continues Racing Against Goalie Doug Coxon

Marion's Barons met their favorite International Hockey League goal tender yesterday at the Coliseum and raced to their ninth straight win on home ice

The Barons scored almost at will against Doug Coxon who now wears the colors of the homeless Louisville Shooting Stars after playing most of the season with Grand Rapids Marion won 7-6

The ninth straight home win was the Barons' fourth straight and gave them a 4-3 edge over the Louisville club in the season series

Team Slowed

Most of the 2 103 fans watching the game agreed it was a lucky thing the Barons were facing Coxon and his Louisville mates The defense of the Barons showed the effects of a long period without practice Coach Ott Heller and officials of the club have agreed to stop practice due to the long siege of basketball at the Coliseum during tournament time Their only action between two Sunday games was a Wednesday night league contest at Milwaukee

Once again, as has been the case in recent outings the visiting team broke first The Stars shot ahead after four minutes and 47 seconds when Whit Mousseau scored on a pass from Phil Dalgish and Joe Shaw They held that lead for over half the first period before Marion's offense broke loose

Dutch Delmonte pumped in a goal with 10 05 gone Gordon Vejprava took a pass from Steve Brklacich at the visitors' end of the rink and skated the length of the ice before passing off to Delmonte just in front of Coxon Ken Schultz scored at 14 35 when he batted in a rebound from a shot by Tony Poeta

The third Marion score came at 17 27 of the period when Poeta scored after Schultz centered out from behind the net Also assisting on the play was Hal Jones Ray Marshall, coach of the Stars, ended the first period scoring 36 seconds later after taking Rollie Duranceau's pass.

Score Knotted

Duranceau and Marshall teamed up to tie the score at 3-3 after 6 23 of the second period Duranceau scored on a shoulder - high shot which Lou Crowdis was unable to block Delmonte scored his second goal at 7 33 when a hook by Murray Wilkie was batted away by Coxon Delmonte shoved in the rebound Before that period ended the Barons had raced to a 6-3 edge Poeta scored his second when he deflected in a shot by Brklacich Schultz also received an assist Vejprava scored with two minutes remaining in the frame with assists going to Wimpy Jones and Heller Vejprava took a pass at center ice and skated straight down on Coxon The shot went between the Star's goalie's legs

The visitors narrowed the count to 6-5 in the first four minutes of the final period Don Crawford scored at 1 13 on a pass from Ed Calhoun and Doug Houston and Shaw scored on passes from Mousseau and Dalgish at 3 59

Vejprava sealed the win for Marion after 4 39 had passed with his second goal Ted Lebioda and Delmonte assisted on the winning goal Lebioda had shot from the point and Coxon had managed to knock the shot away from the goal when Vejprava reached the rebound

Duranceau's second goal ended the scoring at 12 03 He was assisted by Marshall and Jack Sherban

4 Games Slated

The Barons will be in action four times this week They begin the slate Wednesday night with a game here against the third-place Johnstown Jets and Thursday night will be in Troy to attempt to slow the Bruins' playoff drive Saturday night they are slated at Johnstown and next Sunday the Barons play host to the league-leading Cincinnati Mohawks That game is expected to be played before a capacity crowd.

Richwood Nips Union in Final Twelve Seconds

RICHWOOD — Darby and Union were ushered to the sidelines by Northwestern and Richwood in a pair of consolation games in the Union County Basketball Tournament at Marysville Saturday night.

Northwestern pulled away in the final moments of the game for a 51-39 win over Darby while Richwood came from behind in the final seconds for a 60-59 win over Union.

The wins placed Richwood and Northwestern in a consolation battle preceding the championship tilt between Magnetic Springs and Byhalia Wednesday night. Winner of the Richwood-Northwestern clash will oppose the loser of the Magnetic Springs-Byhalia battle Friday for second spot in the tourney.

Richwood was forced to turn on the steam in the final quarter for its win after trailing 45-38 going into the final stanza. Trailing by 10 points with five minutes to play and three points with but 12 seconds left, Richwood took a center jump tap and Tom Shields went in for a layup. Fouled on the play, he added the free throw and then dropped in what proved to be the winning margin with a free throw after Union brought the ball up court and a player was called for charging. One final shot at the basket by Union was no good.

John Coder paced the Richwood attack with 17 points while Shields added 16. Brooks dropped in 16 for the losers.

Leading only 34-30 heading into the last period, Northwestern pulled away at games' end for its final margin of victory. Hayes Crum led the Northwestern team's scoring with 26 points. Bill Griffith put in 19 for the losers.

Chatfield Moves to Semi-Finals In Crawford County Tourney

BUCYRUS— Chatfield advanced to the semi-finals of the Crawford County Class B tournament by trouncing Whetstone 77 - 47, in a quarter-final game Saturday night.

New Washington came from behind to oust Lykens 61 - 57 and Leesville eliminated Tiro, 56-49 in consolation bracket finals.

Tuesday night's semi-finals pair Mt. Zion (18 - 3), county league champions and the tourney's top-seeded quintet, against North Robinson (6-13) and Sulphur Springs, (17-5) last year's tourney winners, takes on Chatfield (14-8). In a consolation bracket tilt, opening the evening's session, Leesville meets Whetstone.

Chatfield breezed past an underdog Whetstone team, which had won only one game in 18 starts. Vic Wurm, veteran center, and Paul Kanney led the Chatfield attack with 22 and 21 points respectively.

Chatfield led at half-time, 36-18 and was ahead, 58 to 31, going into the final period. Chuck Sherer and Ray Patterson each got eight points for the losers.

New Washington found itself in another tight battle with Lykens and trailed all through the game until halfway through the fourth quarter when Gene Van Orsdall got a fielder to tie the score at 52 - all. Bill Heydinger followed with another goal to put the Dutchtown team ahead, 54-52. Van Orsdall got another goal and New Washington kept a 3 to 4 point lead during the remainder of the game.

In its opening appearance Thursday night, New Washington lost out in overtime, 63-61, to North Robinson.

Heydinger and Van Orsdall tallied 17 points for the winners followed by Bill Cleland with 15. Ed Michener dropped in 15 for Lykens with Jim Stineman getting 13 and his brother, Paul, 12.

Leesville outscored Tiro, 13-8, in the second period to give the Trojans their winning margin. They led throughout the game, Tiro bringing the score up to 43 - 46 about halfway through the last quarter.

Joe Smith hit 23 for Leesville and John Sand and Ken Predmore each registered 15 points for the losers.

seconds to go. Shifflet followed with a fielder and after Don Yake scored from the field, Hensel added another pair of foul shots and Ted Murphy scored on a drive-in after a steal by Shifflet. That cut the deficit to 28-27 at the three-quarter mark.

Less than half a minute had passed in the final frame when Murphy dropped in another two points on a rebound to shove the 'Cats ahead for the first time 29-28. Don Yake regained the lead for Waldo with a layup but with 6:53 to go Hensel dropped in a pair of goals on hook shots to put Morral ahead for keeps. From there the Wildcats raced to a 44-36 lead with a minute and 41 seconds to play when Bell dropped in a pair of foul shots. Hensel hooked in another and then connected on his seventh point out of seven tries from the foul line.

The game was one of the poorest performances of the year for the Morral squad, which finished in a tie for the county league leadership. During the first half, the team's erratic passing and sloppy ballhandling kept it in constant trouble and thwarted several promising rallies.

The two big guns, Hensel and Craycraft, were blanketed by Waldo's defense and were never able to bring in the rebounds until the team hit its stride late in the third stanza. Once it began clicking, however, the varsity put the game out of Waldo's reach and Coach Vern Hensel finished the tilt with his second five. Hensel led the way for Morral with 23 points. Craycraft netted seven while Murphy and Bell each had six. Don Yake scored 12 to spark the Waldo squad while Keith Augenstein and Rex Henry each had eight.

Trophies Presented

Paid attendance at the final session was 2,874 highest ever to watch a tournament game at the Coliseum. Lee Watson, Coliseum custodian, reported an estimated 250 fans were standing in the rain a half hour before game time waiting the opening of the doors.

Following the action, D. T. Mills, county school superintendent, presented trophies for the county league sports program during the present school year.

Tribe To Open Training Camp

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—An advance guard put the final touches on gleaming Corbett Field today in preparation for the opening of spring training by the Cleveland Indians Wednesday.

Except that eight of the Tribe's 41 players remain unsigned, everything is in virtual tip-top shape for the club's eighth consecutive season in this land of sand and cactus.

Dave Philley, the new outfielder obtained Friday in a trade with the Philadelphia Athletics, and left fielder Dale Mitchell came to terms with General Manager Hank Greenberg yesterday and veteran pitcher Bob Feller is expected to sign in Cleveland today.

Philley, who was believed to have gotten about $18,000 last year, was reportedly asking the Philadelphia club for a considerable hike. The terms he reached with the Indians weren't divulged.

Feller, who has earned as high as $80,000 for a single season with the Indians, is expected to sign for a figure slightly less than the $40,000 he is believed to have received last year.

One of FBI's Most Wanted Criminals Nabbed in Atlanta

ATLANTA (AP)—A 32-year-old Tennessean who was one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men has been arrested on charges of burglarizing a grocery store.

Nelson R. Duncan of Memphis was picked up yesterday morning by city police after a routine check of a store aroused the suspicion of officers.

Nelson and a man listed as Thomas L. Sarcy, 21, of Springfield, Tenn., were tearing open a safe which contained about $2,000 when police found them, Detective H. J. Standridge reported.

The two men were unarmed and did not offer resistance, police said.

The FBI says Duncan is wanted on charges of interstate transportation of a stolen automobile, unlawful flight to avoid prosecution and violation of the federal firearms act.

Local Observance Begins

Store Window Displays Mark Engineer's Week

Window displays will highlight local observance this week of National Engineer's Week, James H. Harmon, president of the Marion chapter announced today.

A dozen Marion industrial and business concerns will place displays in store windows demonstrating the manifold ways in which engineers contribute to the American standard of living.

R. I. BUTTERWORTH, chairman of engineer week activities, said there is hardly an item American's use that has not been touched by an engineer some place in its development. Engineer week is unique in having no purpose other than to inform the general public of engineer accomplishments, Butterworth said. Since George Washington is considered the first American engineer, the week of his birthday is annually chosen as engineer week.

Other activities planned include a talk today before the Lions Club by Charles C. Whysall of the Marion Water Co. on "How Engineering Affects Your Daily Life." Another brief talk will be given to the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday, and two programs are planned for radio station WMRN this week, one tonight at 8:15 and another Saturday at 1:15 p.m.

ALSO ON SATURDAY three chapter representatives, James Harmon, Stephen Kuhner and Adrian Busick, will travel to Ohio Northern University to attend state student chapter meeting there. The Marion chapter sponsors the Ohio Northern University Unit.

The window displays consist of demonstrations and "exploded" views of engineering methods used in industry and business.

The location of the displays is as follows: Central Soya Co. in Ohio Fuel Gas Co. window; Arro Expansion Bolt Co. at J. C. Turner Hardward; Eaton Mfg. Co. at National City Bank, West Town Branch; Ohio Edison Co. at their offices; Marion Power Shovel at Lowe Bros. Paint Co.; Marion Industries at Uhler's Dept. Store; Fairfield Engineering in the City Furniture Mart window; Huber Mfg. Co. at Schaffner's; Osgood-General Co. at Frank Bros.; Commercial Steel Castings Co. Palace Theater; Marion Water Co. at their offices; and the General Telephone Co. at the Anson Pickerel store.

THE MARION CHAPTER of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers has about 80 members from Marion, Morrow and Delaware counties. There are civil, mechanical, electrical, industrial, chemical and agricultural engineers, as well as surveyors represented in the group. They meet monthly to keep up-to-date on new developments in the field. Officers are James Harmon, president; John Eishen, vice-president; and Frank J. Klaus, secretary-treasurer.

Working on the engineer week activities with Butterworth are Eugene Moore, Charles Whysall, Steve Kuhner and Jack Weis.

'Bomb' Only Hoax But Nobody Is Mad

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A trash collector found what looked like, and ticked like, a bomb in a downtown alley yesterday. He called police.

Police called their crime laboratory director, Ray Pinker, and Army demolition experts.

A policeman stuck a nail into the clock part of the contraption, to stop the ticking, the "bomb" was taken to a field. Police Chief William Parker and Deputy Chief Thad Brown arrived.

A Geiger counter was used—negative results. Then the device was tied to a stake. A 50-foot rope was tied to the clock and from a safe distance it was yanked out of the "bomb."

It turned out to be a $1.95 alarm clock, sponge rubber, rags, paraffin, paper and beeswax.

"I think we've been had," said Brown.

"I'd rather be had than sorry," said Parker.

Boise Dealer Gives Used Car With Each TV Set

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—A Boise furniture dealer has reversed the field on the auto industry and is giving a used car free with each purchase of a television set.

"I figured that if they could give TV sets with cars, I could reverse it," said Mel Foster as he announced his one-week-only promotion.

The cars are 1946 models or older.

Film Director Howard, St. Marys Native, Dies

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—William K. Howard, 54, who enterd the motion picture business as a theater manager and became a leading director, died yesterday.

He had been suffering from a throat ailment for more than a year.

He began directing pictures in 1924. Some of his top productions were "This Side of Heaven," "Johnny Come Lately," "Thundering Heard," "The Valiant," and "When the Lights Go on Again."

He was born in St.Mary's, Ohio.

The average American ate about 100 pounds more food in 1953 than he did in the late years of the '30s, but consumed no more calories.

OLDE HAIRDO. This Parisian coiffure, inspired by the Middle Ages, features a blonde switch draped over the forehead and outlined by a diamond necklace and earrings.

ANNUAL BALL SCHEDULED

BUCYRUS— Bucyrus police will hold their 23rd annual ball at the Moose Home here on Wednesday night. Chief Arthur L. Stuckert announced today. Serving as general cairman for the affair for the 23rd consecutive time wil ble Carl "Dutch" Kramer, a barber. Music for dancing will be furnished by Mack Finch's orhcestra from Kenton.

Explorers Finish 7-Day Expedition Into Crystal Cave

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (AP)—The next explorers entering Crystal cave's deep passages will be able to follow a trail of shoes, socks, sleeping bags, winter underwear and many other items.

Members of last week's seven-day expedition into the cave of mysteries left all excess when they headed for daylight Saturday.

In addition to wearing apparel, they abandoned two gasoline stoves, a substantial store of medical supplies, much food, canteens and other items worth hundreds of dollars inside the cave but mostly worthless outside.

Camp was broken yesterday at the cave entrance in Mammoth Cave National Park, 15 miles out in the rugged southern Kentucky hills from Cave City and 100 miles south of Louisville.

The explorers, headed by Joe Lawrence of Philadelphia, remained intrigued by Crystal's unsolved depths, however, and many said they'd like to return later for an even longer exploration.

PTA Contributes Funds for School

Oak Street School PTA members voted to give each class $10 for room improvements at a recent meeting in the school building. The 10 teachers can use the money in any way for their room.

At the meeting, a nominating committee was chosen, consisting of Donald Farvar, Mrs. Ed Messenger and Mrs. W. A. McFarlin. Jim Gast led the Pledge of Allegiance.

A trio composed of Mrs. Catherine Brown, Mrs. Viola Rinnert, and Miss Helen Thew, sang. Mrs. Madge Curl was accompanist.

Mrs. Junior Ballinger read a tribute to Founder's Day and a cake walk was held with proceeds going to the PTA treasury. Past presidents of the Oak St. PTA were guests.

NEW TRAFFIC SYSTEM

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—A new traffic light and one-way street system went into effect in Middletown yesterday. Traffic signals now are timed to permit automobiles to travel at 22 miles an hour without stopping.

Not for SALE when needed most!

Many a business investment can be safely postponed until a definite need arises. But it is different with liability insurance. After an accident has happened is too late to buy insurance to cover that accident. If you have postponed action on the insurance you need, why put it off any longer?

Tomorrow may be too late.

Radio and Television

By John Crosby

An Actor Abroad

Not in the memory of the oldest inhabitant have there been so many actors trouping through Europe, making TV films and, just incidentally, broadening their minds and conceivably the minds of the Europeans they encounter. The impact of old world culture on an actor's mind — well, it's like writing on water but it has a sort of morbid fascination forme.

J. CROSBY

One of the best known of the working expatriates at the moment is James Daly, star of "Foreign Intrigue" who has kept up a flow of correspondence with J. Walter Thompson full of actorish and sometimes very sharp observations about the countries he's visiting.

-:-

DALY ON SWEDEN, for example: "The Scandinavian countries are supposed to be relatively free of most of the problems that beset the rest of the world, but they have one problem unique to themselves. The hotel problem.

"Once acquainted with this problem, the traveler in the north countries is not so apt to marvel at the fact that the Swedes, for instance, have been at peace for 125 years. How could they possibly get involved in the world's troubles — they never leave their hotel rooms."

Daly on American children abroad: "Glyn (his five - year-old daughter) was given a small gift by a Swedish friend. She simply accepted it and smiled fetchingly. So I said 'What do you say, Glyn?' She opened her mouth and then knotted her brow and said: 'What do I say here, Daddy?' After a summer of 'merci's' and a week of 'danke schoen's' and whatever they say in Denmark, the well rehearsed 'tacke so mycket' got lost somewhere in the rain in Upsala."

DALY ON THE SUBJECT of European misconceptions about Americans: "I do all I can to disprove the favorite European cliche that Americans are childish billionaires with the morals and manners of dangerous cretins.

Unfortunately, although you can knock yourself out in this direction, about the best you can do is have your European friends tell you: 'Oh, but you're different — or as one guy said to me in Paris this summer: 'But you have a European soul!' No matter how much I assured him that my soul had come over on the Mayflower, he wouldn't let me have an American soul and still be a friend."

Daly on the small confusions of life abroad: "Cuts of meat are different in every country we've been in. Apparently every country has its own ideas as to how animals should be slived up. Except for steaks and chops general confusion reigns. This situatoon produced an incomparable vaudeville sketch between Hope (Mrs. Daly) and Mrs. Holger (their landlady) Mrs. Holger was going to order our meat for us and asked for a list When presented with the list, she was absolutely at sea.

"ALTHOUGH SHE SPEAKS perfect English, she'd never heard of sirloin steaks, or T-bones or round steaks. Hope tried to explain by taking imaginary slices off her own torso. When I walked in, Mrs. Holger, a hefty type, was carving a big hunk off her behind, saying 'Oh, you mean from here?' After about a half hour of the two of them dismembering themselves from calves brains to pig's feet, I had to leave the room in an agony of strangulated laughter."

Daly on an actor confronting the real thing as opposed to the stage version: "We visited Kronberg Castle in Elsinore (Denmark), where I mooned about a bit pretending to be Hamlet while the kids joyously slurped up their first ice cream cones of the summer.

Perhaps clever stage sets have spoiled me for Hamlet's castle but Hope and I both felt it didn't do Shakespeare justice. Te situation is marvellous and some of the interiors are impressive, but to an American, brought up on illustrations in Grimm's, it isn't a real castle like those on the Rhine!"

DALY AGAIN ON CHILDREN abroad: "The children are really becoming terrifyingly bright, what with speaking French in school and Swedish to the neighborhood kids. In self defense, Maw and Paw take themselves off to the Berlitz School of Languages once a week but it's a losing battle. When Tyne asks me to check her arithmetic, I am forced to make trumped-up excuses. I can't add and subtract in English much less in French. If I weren't in the movies, I'd lose face with them entirely."

He then fled a Detroit hotel and sought sanctuary in Canada. Crown Attorney Bruce J. S. MacDonald, Q. C., broke up the extradition hearing when he stated that Ritchie's statements to American authorities were inadmissable as evidence.

Godfrey's Hip Mending Well, Doctor Reports

BOSTON (AP)—Arthur Godfrey's physician says the famous radio-TV star will not have to undergo a second hip operation "at the present time."

Dr. Otto E. Aufranc of Newton told newsmen last night:

"Godfrey has continued to improve and made good progress in the past two months. It now remains necessary to develop additional strength by exercise and rest before he will be allowed to discard crutches and cane. He will need to use both from time to time until he has developed necessary endurance.

"An operation on the left hip is not planned at present," the doctor added.

Dr. Aufranc said Godfrey flew here last Saturday for a consultation with him and is expected to return to Boston in about two months for another check.

An operation was performed on Godfrey's right hip last May 15 by Dr. Marius N. Smith-Petersen, who died a few weeks later leaving Dr. Aufranc in charge.

Godfrey's hips were badly smashed in an automobile accident two decades ago.

Study of Birds Begins On Uninhabited Island

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — new study of bird life has begun on the uninhabited Turneffe Island off British Honduras by an expedition headed by James Bond of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia.

Bond and his wife, who writes under the name of Mary Fannin Wickham, will use a 60-foot motor launch lent by the government of British Honduras in the study. He is an authority on bird life in the Americas particularly in regards the West Indies and Latin American countries.

Families To Mark Graves of Pioneers

Early Settlers in County, Jacoby and Emery, To Be Remembered

By ROBERT LISTON

The graves of two pioneer Marion County residents will soon be marked with bronze plates—thanks largely to the interest in genealogy and perseverance of a 71-year-old Marion resident

He is Edwin LeRoy Jacoby of 353 S State St, who followed up a suggestion made at a family reunion and arranged to have markers placed on the graves of John Jacoby his great grandfather and John Emery, another early settler whose children intermarried with the Jacoby's.

THE GRAVES ARE in separate cemeteries in Richland Township Their marble headstones are now so weathered that the inscriptions are nearly illegible

The project began at a Jacoby-Emery family reunion in 1953 Wilbur Jacoby a cousin of Roy's suggested the markers be placed at the graves This was agreed to and Wilbur was put in charge of the project After his death Roy fell heir to the job

It was decided that all known members of the two families would be informed of the project and given the opportunity to contribute to a marker fund

It was in this task that Roy's interest in genealogy paid off He discovered family descendants in such widely separated states as Oregon Texas Mississippi Pennsylvania and Michigan, as well as Ohio

ALTOGETHER some 40 families in a dozen states contributed 'Some of these people I didn't even know" Jacoby says

The markers one foot wide and two feet long will be embedded in concrete and rise about six inches above the ground They will be placed in the spring and dedicated at the Jacoby-Emery reunion in September.

John and Catherine Emery settled in Richland Township in 1820 Four years later John and Katherine Jacoby settled nearby The two families intermarried and in succeeding generations the Emery's and Jacoby's found themselves attending both family reunions and so decided to combine them about 25 years ago

JACOBY REPORTS he is indebted to Emery descendants Charles W Oborn 351 Lafayette St, Marion architect and past president of the reunion as well as Calvin F Oborn 315 Franklin Ave, Marion County clerk of courts who both rendered invaluable aid in the project

Prior to his retirement in April 1953 Jacoby was with the Marion Power Shovel Co for 36 years He went to work in the old tin shop in 1897 and worked his way up to become a mechanical engineer For 31 of those years he was a sales representative acting as district sales manager for the company offices in New York City Chicago and Kansas City

Nine days after the family reunion next fall Roy and Mabel Jacoby will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary They have three children, John W of Dallas Tex Ruth L Evans of Washington D C, and Mary L Judson of Cleveland They have a year-old great granddaughter

EDWIN LeROY JACOBY scans a family tree he used in tracking down descendants of John Emery and John Jacoby pioneer Marion County residents whose graves will be marked with bronze plates this spring The two families decided on the project at a reunion in 1953 and Jacoby has devoted much of his time to it

The members, describing themselves as "independent Republicans and Jeffersonian Democrats," issued a statement saying Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) has not been approached about the matter and that "his desire in the matter will not be considered."

Elected chairman of the club was Dr. Wesley Swift of Lancaster, Calif., a legislative representative of Gerald L. K. Smith's Christian Nationalist party.

The statement issued by the club said in part:

"In fighting the Bricker amendment, President Eisenhower is joining hands with the most radical New Dealers, such as Sen. Humphrey of Minnesota and Sen. Lehman of New York."

"We think the time has come," the statement said, "for the people who put America first and propose not to be governed by foreigners to draft a presidential candidate. We shall work for Mr. Bricker's nomination through the machinery of the Republican party."

Car Out of Control Wrecks 2 Filling Stations in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—An automobile running in a circle kicked up an awful fuss at a street intersection last night.

After hitting the rear of another car, it zipped through a service station driveway, knocking over two gasoline pumps and a 15-foot light pole.

One pump caught fire. Station owner Joseph Jones' clothes caught fire from it. His hair and arms were singed.

The car kept going, carrying the flaming pump with it. Across the street it ripped off a fender while knocking over an air pump at another filling station.

It finally came to a stop back at the first station, narrowly missing Jones.

The driver, Mrs. Helen Ball, 37, was unhurt. Police booked her for investigation of drunk driving.

An earthquake which hit the Mississippi Valley in 1811 was felt in two-thirds of what is now the United States.

Variety Show at Crystal Rink Will Benefit Polio Foundation

A variety show to benefit the national polio fund will be staged at the Crystal Roller Rink on Route 4, north of Marion Wednesday at 8 p.m., Ralph Zickafoose, owner and operator announced today.

Called the "Roller Frolics of 1954" the show is directed by Dick Furest and Phyllis Markley of Lima.

It is staged in two acts with 15 scenes in the first, "Winter Carnival," and 10 in the second, "Fiesta In Old Spain."

Sanctioned by the Roller Skaitng Rink Operators Association, the show will star Fuerst and Miss Markley and Donnie Michael, all of Lima.

Michael is a former national junior boys speed skating champion and Fuerst is holder of several national titles in free-style skating, Zickafoose said.

Miss Markley is a former novice girls speed champion in Ohio and was runner-up for the free style title.

The cast is made up of more than 50 roller skating experts, all from Lima or nearby. All have skated in various contests seeking state and national awards for their skating abilities, Zickafoose said.

Master of ceremonies will be Walter D. McClaskey of near Marion.

Admission to the show will be 60 cents and all attending will be permitted free public skating after the performance, Zickafoose said.

All proceeds will go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Last year the March of Dimes campaign received approximately $30,000 from the roller rink industry, he said.

Styled like years from now—the stunningly beautiful, sensationally powered 1954 Buick CENTURY Riviera.

Try the POWER of the CENTURY

It's the buy of the year for folks who want high performance at a low price

At the wheel of Buick's 200-hp CENTURY, something tremendously exciting is waiting to happen to you.

It's the wondrous thrill of commanding a phenomenal performer that's yours for hundreds of dollars less than the middle-price cars.

We can give you here just a quick summary of the sensational facts about this spectacular automobile:

It has the highest horsepower ever placed in a standard-production Buick — and the highest compression ratio, 8.5 to 1.

It has the highest power-to-weight ratio of any Buick ever built — with a cyclonic 200-hp V8 engine driving with unbelievable ease the nimble weight of this sizable car—3852 pounds, for the CENTURY shown here, as it comes off the assembly line.

It carries a price that puts it substantially below the highly popular Buick SUPER—a price that buys more horsepower per dollar in a CENTURY than you get in any other automobile in America.

If it's true high performance you want, at a truly modest price, come in and meet the CENTURY close up—behind its wheel. You'll find it the buy of the year, hands down.

NO OTHER CAR GIVES YOU ALL THIS:

GREATEST STYLING ADVANCE IN YEARS with completely new bodies across the board; lowered rooflines, longer and higher fender sweep, exclusive sweep-spear design

NEWEST VISIBILITY ADVANCE with backswept windshields that give 1954 more visibility; greater glass area around full 360° arc

Industrial Huddling

Every time another speaker chides industry for huddling near cities in this atomic age he answers one question and asks two more.

He makes it clear that atomic warfare could be waged successfully against key industrial areas — which no one questions seriously any more. But he does not make it clear what industries can do about it.

He does not explain how industrial dispersion could be put into effect on a large scale.

Manufacturing enterprise must be located in relation to raw materials, labor, markets and many other things, such as technical services, climate and utilities.

Yet, atomic-age experts like Lieut. Gen. Leslie Richard Groves go about telling Americans it is "utterly stupid for America's big industries to go on expanding facilities in the same area." He used these words in Cincinnati this week.

He explained that Cincinnati would be easy for enemy bombers to find. In spite of this, he went on to say, the city would be happy if one of its big industries decided to expand its plant. People would think of more jobs and more wealth, forgetting these would only make Cincinnati a better target in war.

It would be interesting to know if men like Gen. Groves really think our industrial civilization could be rearranged arbitrarily even if funds were made available for building new locations. It would be easier to go back to the pastoral age and forget atom-splitting altogether.

Still Hanging Together

Their unwritten agreement to disagree has been reaffirmed by the Western Allies and the Soviet Union in the Berlin conference. But this does not represent failure.

These conferences are set up for the primary purpose of revealing what may have happened in the internal politics of the conferees since the preceding conference.

Foreign Secretary Eden, Foreign Minister Bidault and Secretary of State Dulles learned many things of first-rate importance about the Soviet Union while they were sparring with Foreign Minister Molotov in Berlin.

They learned, for instance, that there has been no change of policy since Stalin passed from power. Prime Minister Churchill's wishful theory that Malenkov's government would cooperate with the West did not pan out.

They also learned of Red China's growing prestige as a Russian ally.

But it must be acknowledged as of greater importance that Molotov learned the United States, Great Britain and France are still hanging together and showing no signs of making the fateful decision to hang separately.

That is what the Kremlin is waiting for — the disintegration of the alliance which stalled its expansion into Europe and forced it to expand into Asia instead. Molotov has been probing all the potential weaknesses of the alliance at Berlin. When the conference breaks up at the end of this week it is unlikely he will have found any weakness serious enough to exploit.

The Old Look

An aviation magazine's report of new long-distance bombers in the Soviet air force will have a predictable effect on Congress and the aviation industry.

It will make Congress dubious about trying to hold down Air Force appropriations this year and make the aviation industry hopeful of getting everything it wants in new appropriations for military security.

This does not mean the aviation magazine has been anything but objective and accurate in its reporting. It does mean that while appropriation bills are pending nothing which might make it easier to beef up the Air Force will be overlooked.

There is a standard procedure for putting congressmen on the spot — and the spot this year will be hotter than usual because Secretary of Defense Wilson and his advisers are talking about a "new look."

Their policy of making defense expenditures justify themselves on some more reliable basis than national nervousness will have to be thrown open to doubt by increasing the nervousness.

The new administration's belief that it is not billions of dollars which will bring security to the United States but the prudence with which the money is spent will have to be thrown open to challenge on a basis of "penny-pinching."

The "new look" is only an old look brought up to date — the second look which means prudence.

Prudence always was a hard nut for the big spenders to crack when they had to crack it. They're out of practice, but they remember the old tricks.

Between now and the time the military appropriations are voted next summer, Russia will have possible clouds of supersonic bombers, armies of men who may be more than eight feet tall and vast fleets of submarines which will sneak up the Potomac and lob atomic shells into the Capitol.

It might be true. Many a billion has been added to military appropriations on the strength of a possibility.

Washington's Advice

By James Marlow

Wisdom Honored but Not Always Followed

WASHINGTON (AP)—If George Washington could hear his Farewell Address read in Congress today, would he make any changes in the advice he gave the nation in 1796?

It was advice which the nation has always honored but hasn't always followed.

Washington might revise his thinking about political parties, about which he had deep misgivings.

"There is an opinion," he said, "that parties in free countries are useful checks upon the administration of government and serve to keep alive the spirit of liberty."

He said he thought this was probably true "within certain limits" and he mentioned monarchies as an example, but he added that in a government like this party spirit "is a spirit not to be encouraged."

At the time he wrote there was only one party, the Federalists, led by Alexander Hamilton and representing the monied and commercial interests of the East. It wasn't long afterwards that the Republicans, under Thomas Jefferson, rose up, smashed the Federalists, and set the two-party system in motion. These Republicans were the forerunner of the present Democratic party.

It was the rise of political parties which, by keeping any class or faction from controlling too long, probably was the main force in preserving the democratic American society which Washington wanted preserved.

Washington's advice to this country to stay out of entangling foreign alliances made his Farewell Address a hymn book for American Isolationists. And for more than 100 years his advice was followed.

"Europe," he said, "has a set of primary interests which to us have none or a very remote relation. Hence she must be engaged in frequent controversies, the causes of which are essentially foreign to our concern."

But he didn't lay down isolationism as a blanket rule. He foresaw the time when this country might have to make alliances:

"Taking care always to keep ourselves by suitable establishments on a respectable defensive posture, we may safely trust to temporary alliances for extraordinary emergencies."

What is an extraordinary emergency? This country thought it saw one in World Wars I and II, when it made alliances, and after World War II when it joined the Atlantic Pact with Western Europe against Russia, although it might be argued the Atlantic Pact is hardly temporary.

But Washington's advice was disregarded when this country joined the United Nations after World War II to try to preserve peace and stop aggression anywhere on earth.

And what would Washington think of Secretary of State Dulles' notice that the Communists would be paid back with massive retaliation if they attacked anywhere? There is nothing isolationist in that.

But when Washington wrote his Farewell Address the threat of world communism wasn't even a gleam in the eye of any Russian or Chinese alive then. If Washington were alive now he might consider it necessary—as Presidents Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower did—to have foreign allies.

Maybe he wouldn't. And, since history isn't all written yet, maybe he was right all the time.

People Are Best

By TRUMAN TWILL

Nothing makes a man more certain that women are daffy than to hear them talk about clothes. Particularly if it doesn't matter.

The cruel fact is that in many instances it doesn't matter because no one will notice the clothes anyway. This is a fact well known to men about their own clothes and accounts for their indifference.

But women, with rare exceptions, never grow indifferent about the matter of clothing. They will spend an hour fussing over a new hat when it wouldn't be noticed if they decided to wear a stocking cap.

Whether this is because women dress to impress other women and are not trying to impress men, which is a sound theory, or because women have an infinite capacity for preening themselves for the pure joy of preening is of secondary importance.

Of primary importance is the fact nearly all of them go on preening long after anyone cares what color or shape their feathers are. And it has given rise to a practice so ridiculous it defies reason.

This is the practice of designing women's clothing for mere slips of girls, so to speak, and thereby giving the whole female sex the illusion of preening itself in the images of its sveltest representatives.

The illusion may last no longer than it takes to glance into a mirror and is shattered with a loud karoomph when milady gets into the ready-to-wear department. But it is carried along year after year by an accidental conspiracy based on shrewd understanding of female psychology. The girls love to be fooled.

Advertisements and show windows should feature designs for reality —dresses for the female whose figger has fallen and who is trying to conceal the damage.

They should give aid and comfort to dollies who never had any figures in the first place—those slatty babes who never grew out of the awkward stage.

They should make down-to-earth concessions to the fact some women are not designed to wear the same kind of garments most women wear—that some women are not the same shape as most women.

When the clothing trade has put harsh reality instead of gossamer dreams into its advertisements and show windows, it should start to work on the same proposition for men.

Not all men come in the handy family size either. There are living skeletons and blimps, pudges and splinters. There are models with bulging chests and there are men with no chests at all, just bony structures fitted with arms and necks and heads.

This is only an estimate but there may not be one human being in ten who bears even a faint resemblance to the models, illustrations and mannikins. Yet when the other nine go forth to fit themselves with raiment, their money is just as good as that of the handful of freaks who represent the ideal.

The question is where the idea came from in the first place that the ideal looks like the exception instead of the rule. What would be wrong with admitting for a change that people look like people, no better and no worse?

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

About 275 men from Marion County served in Companies H and K of the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War. The Fourth Ohio was made up of two companies from Mount Vernon, two from Delaware, two from Kenton, two from Marion, one from Canton and one from Wooster. The Fourth Ohio took part in the battle of Gettysburg and was one of the three regiments that drove the Confederates from Cemetery Hill on July 1. During the war it marched 1,975 miles and traveled by rail and transport 2,279 miles. It was noted for its discipline efficiency in drill and good conduct on the battlefield.

Washington's Rules of Conduct

It is a part of the American credo that George Washington, "The Father of his Country" was always a paragon. Even the efforts of scores of biographers, including this century's specialists in "debunkery," have not shaken public faith in the idea that Washington was always lordly, impeccable, virtuous, gracious and gallant—even when chopping down cherry trees.

A famed estimate of the first president, in fact, describes him as "The first and last American gentleman—a gentleman in the American rather than in the English sense."

Washington himself left us the best evidence that manners, in his case, did not make the man so much as the man moulded his own manners, writes Lewis Glaser of New Haven, Conn., in a foreword to his 58-page lithographed tribute to the most towering figure in American History—"George Washington's Rules of Civility."

It is well known that Washington came from a family of excellent background. But his formal education was limited; his spelling and grammar were shaky; he was more at home in the saddle than in the drawing room, Glaser continues.

At 16, George had much to learn about society—and he knew it. At that age he left his widowed mother and went to live under the guardianship of his married half-brother, Lawrence, at Mount Vernon.

-:-

IN THE LIBRARY of his magnificent new home he found "Youth's Behaviour, or Decency in Conversation Amongst Men," by Francis Hawkins, and Englishman. Its precepts apparently struck a responsive chord in the boy who may have been made conscious of his personal shortcomings by the sparkling social life of Mount Vernon.

In his copybook, at any rate, George inscribed in neat handwriting with a goose quill 110 "Rules of Civility & Decent Behaviour in Company and conversation." Not all the "rules" were his own—some were Hawkins'.

Reading them, one cannot help but think they indicated the youth's thorough and amazing preparation for his future. George's copybook, what remains of it, is now carefully preserved in the Library of Congress.

The script and the exquisite 18th century illustrations in Glaser's re-creation of George's "rules" also are drawn entirely with goose quills by two prominent Yale University quill artists—Robert Gillam Scott and Leo Stanton Stoutsenberger. Permission having been granted by Glaser, a few of the rules, as numbered by young Washington and in their original form withotu disturbance of the phraseology or the punctuation, are reprinted here:

South American Challenge

By ALEC DE MONTMORENCY

Britain's right to her South and Central American possessions is due to be challenged at the Tenth Pan-American Conference which opens at Caracas March 1.

A dispatch to the newspaper Madrid, published in the Spanish capital, reports that a number of Latin nations, led by Venezuela, Argentina and Guatemala, will press for an end of the "illegal occupation" by Britain of such territories as British Guiana, the Falkland Islands and British Honduras. With the United States and a number of other new world republics due to advocate a hemisphere-wide struggle against Communist infiltration, the parley is likely to jell into a contest between anti - colonialist and Anti - Communist forces.

The Spanish correspondent in Caracas notes that the populations of South and Central America especially resent the British presence in the area as an Anglo-Saxon and protestant foothold and a challenge to Hispano-Lusitanian unity. So strong is that sentiment that the right-wing regime of Venezuela and the Pro - Communist government of Guatemala are patching up their relations in order to present a common anti-colonialist front at the conference.

Guatemalans have a long-standing claim on British Honduras, which they call Belize, while Argentinians similarly claim possession of the Falkland Islands, which they call Islas Malvinas.

The question of Venezuela's borders with British Guiana created a notable Anglo - American conflict half a century ago. Britain's occupation is still not recognized by Venezuala.

The British, on the other hand, point out that they owned all those colonies long before either Guatemala, Venezuela or Argentina ever existed as independent nations, and that therefore the latters' recognition of British rights is required under international law.

The Monroe Doctrine, on which the U. S. stand has historically been based explicitly recognized the validity of British, French, Dutch and Danish rule in what then remained of the European possessions in America, although it barred any further colonization of the continent.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Man of the Years

Geroge Washington, as ordinarily presented, seems a cold legendary personage, a figure in marble, a character in a drama. It is hard to think of him with the warmth and closeness you associate with Lincoln. It's the fault of the historians and the story tellers.

Washington was what everybody likes. . .the man who can take a clobbering and triumph. . . the fighter who can take a nine count and get off the floor to deliver a kayo . . . the slow-ball pitcher who, with the bases full in the showdown, can whip over a blazing third strike

-:-

Washington was Uncle Sam in a tri-cornered hat. He was Yankee Doodle going to town on a hunter bred for distance. He was the forward passer who could nuss the target all afternoon and pinpoint the one who wins the game in the last three minutes of play.

He was the clutch hitter, the winner "dropping out of the clouds," and the guy who was a triple threat even in the shadow of his own goal posts.

George always looked more majestic slumped over a weary horse limping back from a dismal defeat than most generals look on a spirited charger galloping to report a famous victory. He was the Man of Distinctive Endurance, Mister Fortitude, Old Man Patience and Fortitude.

-:-

Stories of his praying in the woods for God's guidance in battle have been assailed by professional debunkers. But there was a prayer in his bearing. There was a litany in his character. The never-told-a-lie legend may have been a Parson Weems invention, but the man blazed with truth and integrity and dependability. He belonged with great oaks, towering pines and redwoods rather than the cherry trees. George was no hacker of fruit orchard saplings and lawn shrubbery. To look at him was to cry, "Timber!" He was the underdog who got the last bite, the boy who kept cool on the burning deck, the slow starter who made it in the stretch."

-:-

There wouldn't be much patience with Washington today. The word is speed mad. It's cry is, "Faster!" It wants the victory every hour on the hour or else

George was a careful planner, a man who thought things through, a leader who, hindered, criticized and double-crossed, could stand firm and, without a word, flash a message, "Have faith a while longer, all will be well."

Nobody slapped him on the back or sought easy familiarity, but in today's language he was always a good be "across the board" in the Great American Reliability Sweepstakes. He was everything that the grandstand player is not.

There was nothing of the prima donna about him. He took lickings galore, ran up a high score for gloomy retreats through bloody snows and looked pretty punch drunk fairly often. But to the battered, tattered, half-starved, foot-frozen Continentals leaving crimson footprints on the white trail he was "My Guy," "Mr. Come-Through-When-The-Chips-Are-Down" and the ultimate "Winnah and New Champ."

There were Tories, spies and traitors all around. He didn't get hysterical over them but he wasn't for handling them with care, blasting the spy hunters and crying, "Take it easy; maybe they're just drinking men." His loathing for traitors was a flaming thing. He wouldn't have thought it unreasonable to ask a suspect, "Are you or have you ever been an enemy agent," and expect a straight answer. Come back, George! We could use you.

Can you remember away back when no comedian thought it was great advertising to let the nation in on all the cheaper phases of a rowdy past? In current musicals we would give a lot more for less choreography and more laughs.

Elmer Twitchell now takes coffee beans in to have them retreaded.

The Big Three will find, after getting out of that meeting with Molotov, that a month on a revolving platform will seem comparatively restful.

Graham Starts Off on Wrong Foot in Britain

14 Million Socialists Offended by Calendar Advertising Crusade

LONDON (AP)—A Labor member of Parliament said today Billy Graham will meet British Laborites in an attempt to quiet bitter criticism sparked by anti-Socialist reference in a calendar advertising the American evangelist's coming appearance in Britain.

Laborite Geoffrey de Freitas announced in a press statement that Graham "has asked to see me and my colleagues of the parliamentary Socialist Christian group on his arrival. The meeting will take place Friday morning at the House of Commons."

Graham and his associates apologized profusely earlier today that they really meant to blast "secularism," not "socialism."

The uproar was touched off last weekend by a calendar put out by the Billy Graham Evangelical Assn., as Graham headed for a three-month religious crusade in Britain. This was the offending quotation:

"When the war ended, a sense of frustration and disillusionment gripped England, and what Hitler's bombs couldn't do, socialism with its accompanying evils shortly accomplished.

"England's historic faith faltered. The churches standing gradually emptied."

De Freitas said Graham, who is scheduled to arrive in Britain tomorrow on the liner United States, had wired an "explanation and apology to the 14 million labor voters for his mistake." He said an apology also had been received from Graham's organization in the United States.

13 Traffic Arrests Reported by Police

Thirteen traffic arrests over the weekend were reported today by Marion police. Speeding apparently was the worst offense with 11 of the 13 drivers charged with this violation.

They were: William A. Hart, 34, 168 Spencer St.; Myles S. Frehm, 27, of Columbus; Carl E. Miley, 29, of 133 N. Main St.; speeding, fourth arrest this charge; Clarence L. Mason, 22, Mansfield; Ray W. Cover, 33, Wyandotte, Mich.; Martha V. Neville, of near Marion; Dean M. Irwin, 48, Alger; Clayton T. Napper, 28, of 835 Silver St., John M. Bankston, 24, of 883 N. State St., Philip B. Miller, 32, of Columbus, and Mary E. O'Neil of near Eaton.

Also arrested were Joseph E. Hudkins, 18, of 769 N. State St., charged with reckless driving and Otto C. Schlientz, 68, of 310 Hane Ave., driving wrong way on a one-way street.

All post bond or were cited to appear in Municipal Court tomorrow or at later dates.

Harding Will Be Host For Vocational Meeting

Marion Harding will be host Monday to four other Ohio high schools—Fostoria, Findlay, Delaware and Van Wert—for a Northwest Vocational Industrial Club conference.

The regional meeting here will be preliminary to the state conference to be held at Ohio State University in April. About 60 people are expected to attend the conference here.

Participation in job interviews, extemporaneous speaking, group singing, basketball games and entertainment will make up the program.

The conference will be supervised by four Harding teachers: Emil Ilisak, trades and industries; Charles Nichols, machine shop; Arthur Moody, technology, and Richard Slack, automotive.

NEW JET TRAINER. Increased flying safety and advanced pilot-schooling have been given special consideration in the designing of this new two-place jet trainer, shown during a test flight at Burbank, Calif. It will soon be demonstrated to the U.S. Air Force and the Navy during a nationwide tour of training bases. Among the innovations included in the 600-mile-per-hour speedster are a raised rear seat to give the instructor better visibility and a close watch on the student; a parabrake 'chute to slow the plane on landing; climb and speed equal to combat jets and special wing devices to permit stalling the trainer.

88 Airmen To Be Cold, Hungry In 2-Week Survival Ration Test

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Some 88 men from Wright-Patterson Air Force Base started on a trip today with deliberate plans to stay cold and hungry for two weeks.

The 88 are all volunteers for a six-week cold weather field test aimed at developing improved emergency survival rations. Four weeks will be devoted to studying the men before and after the test run.

The volunteers will live under simulated survival conditions ranging from starvation to normal. Their hunger site will be Camp McCoy, Wis.

Aero Medical Laboratory at Wright-Patterson is conducting the test as one phase of its continued nutritional studies. A total of 20 different feeding situations will be studied from food items currently used in Air Force survival rations.

Before and after affects of the men will be studied at Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois.

The current test is designed to study nutritional requirements for cold weather survival. A second test is expected to be conducted this summer under hot weather conditions, probably in Texas.

One group of the volunteers will receive limited amounts of water, will have no food some periods and food totaling 3,000 calories at other times. They will be required to exercise heavily, mainly by marching. Another group will get unlimited amounts of water and will exercise lightly.

Soviet MIG To Be Tested in Dayton

WASHINGTON (AP) — A selected audience will have a chance to see a Russian-built MIG15 jet fighter plane in flight Wednesday in Dayton, Ohio.

It is the craft a deserting North Korean pilot delivered to U. N. forces, and for which he was paid $100,000. The Communists have ignored an invitation to reclaim it by proving ownership.

The Air Force has arranged a flight demonstration for newsmen at Wright-Patterson Field, Dayton.

The plane already has been test-flown extensively. The consensus of U. S. pilots who have studied it is that, over-all, it does not match the F86 fighter in performance and is considerably inferior in equipment.

Three Marion Students In All-State Orchestra

Three Harding High School students have been chosen as regular members of the all-state high school symphony orchestra which will give its annual concert Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Ohio State University men's gymnasium.

Beverly Stine, Julia Gorman and Ted Pollock will join 147 other students for the concert. Miss Stine play. the violin, Miss Gorman the flute and Pollock the bass viol.

The trio was selected after tryouts in December and January. The 150 students in the all-state orchestra were chosen from 600 candidates.

Clevelander Totes 100-Pound Burden 2 Miles To Win $10

CLEVELAND (AP)—To win a $10 bet, a part-time car washer with nine children carried a 100-pound box of oil cans more than two miles yesterday.

"When you have nine kids to feed and you don't have a regular job, you'll do most anything for money," Marvin Burgess, 30, said after finishing the trip from E. 55th street to Public square.

Burgess covered the 2.1-mile distance in 45 minutes.

Sounds so high pitched that the human ear is unable to hear them can sterilize food, mix paints, kill germs, homogenize milk, clear away fog and smoke and wash clothes, says the American Hearing Aid Association.

ACROSS THE COUNTER

As the blaze mounted in fury, smoke billowed from the home and the wood crackled from the intense flames. Over at one side, watching the firemen battle the fire, was a small woman, almost unnoticed by the gathering crowd. She and her son owned the property.

Earl J. Andrews

Finally, she turned to a friend, "It's terrible," she said, "we only have a small amount of insurance — $2,000, I think it is. Now everything we own is burning up. Oh, I wish we had taken out more insurance. We talked about it, but never got around to it. Really, I don't know what we will do."

That's a real life drama. It actually happened. But PLEASE don't let it happen to you. We know how badly people feel who don't have enough insurance when a fire occurs. It's a major tragedy.

And the saddest part of all is that it is TOO LATE to order more insurance when the fire trucks drive up. Unfortunately, too, some people wait that long before they realize how much they needed adequate insurance.

We urge you to avoid this kind of tragedy. Order more fire insurance NOW! Our phone number is 2-3127.

Marion Club Will Sponsor Book Review

Members of the Clionian Club will sponsor Mrs Kenneth D. Seiter of Newark in a book review Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the YMCA. A former resident of Marion, Mrs Seiter is widely known throughout Ohio for her reviews, lectures and readings, and recently came to Marion as a guest on the Marion Association of University Club's program.

For her program Thursday evening she will review Sholem Asch's "A Passage in the Night." For his first modern novel since "East River," the author has chosen a timeless theme, that of atonement, of man in conflict with his conscience. The story is that of Isaac Grossman, son of poor but devoutly religious immigrant parents, who wins worldly success and fortune with comparative ease. His marriage is a happy one and he sees his son carrying on the family name. Yet the fact that years before, when he was young and striving for success, he had cheated a man whom he scarcely knew, preyed on his mind and gave him no peace. How Isaac Grossman found renewed strength in the faith of his fathers and purged himself of his sin provides a powerful climax to the book.

Mrs. Seiter has broadcast over the Newark station for several years under the sponsorship of the Licking County Federation of Church Women and the Licking County Ministerial Association, and beginning March 1 will conduct a course of informal adult education under the sponsorship of the YMCA. The course will include discussions of books, authors and their background. Tickets for the review may be obtained from any member of the Clionian Club of which Mrs. Harley Lewis is president.

National Officer Inspects Chi Omega Sorority Here

Biennial inspection of the work of Beta Gamma chapter of Lambda Chi Omega sorority was conducted and the twenteth anniversary of the founding of the chapter observed with a dinner Thursday evening at Hotel Harding. A guest of honor, and here to inspect the chapter, was Miss Marjorie McCracken of Cambridge, national vice president.

Mrs Henry Schuler Jr. presided for the dinner which was preceded by a cocktail hour. The U-shaped table, laid in the Presidential Suite, was in the anniversary theme. Platinum fan-shaped arrangements served as a background for red rosebuds, and tall red tapers completed the decorations. Places were marked with red roses, the sorority flower. Music for the cocktail hour was by Billie Johnston, accordionist.

Two Charter Members

Mrs. Hubert Goerlich and Mrs Donna Nelson, the only two charter members now affiliated with the chapter, presented highlights of the founding of the organization Feb. 18, 1934. For inspection the formal initiation ceremony was presented by the ritual team composed of Mrs Wilbur Flach, Mrs J Millard Diehl, Mrs Damon Carey, Mrs. Billie Johnston Mrs Joseph E Davis and Mrs. William E Hoffman. Mrs. Ronald Lust was initiated.

Mrs Schuler presided for the model business meeting. A contribution of $25 was voted to the Marion County March of Dimes campaign.

Miss McCracken conducted a round table discussion on the national constitution. She is a member of Zeta chapter in Cambridge and during the 15 years of her association with the sorority has been active in local, state and national work. She has served as trustee, vice president and president of the state organization, and in the national sorority served as state organizer and corresponding secretary before taking up her present duties.

Miss McCracken was presented a gift from the chapter. Announcement was made of the annual national convention to be held at Peoria, Ill.

Active in Civic Work

Beta Gamma chapter is active in civic work. It maintains a year-round program of assisting less fortunate families, carrying out special activities at holiday times, contributes financially and in time to community campaigns. A number of members have in the past and are now active in state and national sorority work. Mrs Schuler, a former state recording secretary, is now serving as sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Damon Carey and Mrs. Edward Weiser recently served on the national jurisprudence committee.

The chapter shared second honors with Beta Mu chapter of Shelby in the 1952 national inspection award.

The national sorority was founded May 12, 1923 by 12 women, at Fort Wayne, Ind. There are now 37 chapters in 10 states with 820 active and 186 inactive and alumnae. It has as its purpose the promotion of interest and activity in social development, charity and education.

The members contribute $600 annually to maintain a bed in Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond, Va and also purchase equipment for the institution and provide gifts and remembrances for the patients. Pritchard School in Huntington, W. Va., also is assisted by the group. An annual scholarship of $200 is provided for a student at Berea College Berea Ky., and another $200 is contributed to assist a student at Park College near St. Louis, Mo.

All chapters are active in philanthropic and educational work and a number maintain scholarships for the education of young people in their own community. Many members give of their time in hospitals, county homes, orphanages and other institution and plans have been launched for the development of "Sunset House," a home for members upon retirement.
